AN INSIDE BATH MAKES YOU LOOK AND FEEL FRESH

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast keeps illness away.

Physicians the world over recom nend the inside bath, declaring this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skir pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illhealth, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a terspoonfn of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidnes and bowels the previous days indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleaning, sweetening and purfying the alimentary canal before eating any food.

Those who wake up with bad breath coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull aching head, sallow complexion acid stomach; others who have bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug sore. This will cost very little but is sufficient to show the value of inside bathing.

Of His Mother

Son of Jessie Bartlett Davis Searching U.S For Phonograph Records of Her Singing "Oh, Promise Me."

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.- Ason is o search throughout the United States for his dead mother's voice.

Will J. Davis, Jr., president of a manufacturing company, is the son, and the mother, whose voice moved thousands of a former generation of theatre-goers, was Jessie Bartlett Davis.

Wednesday, Feb. 4, 1920 Of all the songs that she sang, hers was complete without it, and such was the appeal of her voice in this song that few heard her sing it through with dry eyes.

She was one of the first singers Secretary. to make phonograph records of her vere made and distributed by the pioneer company. A complete set of these records were owned by Davis. Time passed and his mother died. The records gained a double value. He could put one of the records on his machine and with lights turned out could envision his childhood memories of his mother as her voice filled

Constant use, however, told on the records, and he was obliged to play them less frequently. Then came fire that destroyed the records and left him only recollections and re-

Now he is searching everywhere for some of the records. He believes that some must still exist and he is willing to pay well for them. The master records were lost after the old company merged with another. None is carried in stock and he is turning to elderly music lovers, some of those who still tell of the glories of the old Bostonians, to satisfy a son's longing.
