

JOAN OF ARC

Joan of Arc, the young girl who was sent to fight the English in France, is the subject of a play at the Grand Opera House. The play is a dramatic and patriotic work, and is well received by the audience. The young actress who plays the part of Joan is highly praised for her performance.

THE EVIL MAY DAY

A FOOL AND HIS FOLLY.

A Tale of the Time of Henry VIII.

CHAPTER XXI.

WORD OF MIGHT.

Stephen was told that the gentleman in black was the man who had been seen at the window of the late Sir John's study. Stephen was very much interested in the matter, and he determined to see the man. He went to the window and saw a man in a black coat and a hat, who was looking out. Stephen called out to him, and the man came forward. Stephen asked him who he was, and the man answered that he was the man who had been seen at the window. Stephen was very much surprised, and he asked the man why he had been there. The man answered that he had been there to see the late Sir John. Stephen was very much interested in the man's story, and he asked him many questions. The man answered all of Stephen's questions, and Stephen was very much satisfied with his answers.
