NEWS ABOUT HOME.

'A chief's amang ya, takin' notes'
An 'faith he'll break it.'

TOWN TOPICS.

TO DRESSMAKERS.—I have now on hand a large stock of Howells Improved Cloths. Every lady her own dressmaker. D. Gordon, Public and Judge and jury on our side, and a verdict is always given in our favor. On hand, a large supply of tweeds for fall and winter suits. F. & A. FRIDMAN.

JOHN MACGARGAT.—The Victoria street grocer, is making a big drive in tea just now. He also pays close attention to all kinds of meats, etc. See his new advertisement.

Remember that Tuesday and Wednesday next are the dates of Goderich fall show. Merchants desiring printing should not delay their orders to the last hour.

A largely patronized excursion from points between here and Stratford arrived here on Tuesday. Those who came up were chiefly ruralists, enjoying a holiday after harvest.

We were shown by James Imrie on Saturday last a novelty in lead pencils, being the English patent spring style, which is so popular in the cities. He has a large lot on sale.

Neil Fox, who at one time was a compositor in this office, but who for a few years has been mechanical manager of Nelsonville, Man., Mountaineer, is visiting friends in this County.

Mr. James Hyslop, of Forest, has been much improved in health during his sojourn in Goderich. The air of her old home appears to agree with her, as indeed it does with most invalids.

BOOK OF RECITATIONS.—We have received from the Toronto News Co. the "Excelsior" book of recitation, No. 1. It contains some of the newest readings and recitations, and has been well selected.

Among the new features of St. George's church services will be the addition to the choir of a large number of juvenile male voices. A class of boys are now being trained to lend their voices to the church services.

We will send THE SIGNAL on trial to any address for the next three months for 25c. New subscribers for 1885, paying now, can get the paper from present date to 1st January, 1885, for one year subscription, $1.50.

Mr. Marks, of Brucefield, who was the guest of T. B. VanEyre recently, enjoyed himself by long and frequent drives on our beautiful streets. He thinks Goderich a most delightful spot. And so say we all.

Uncle Tom's Cabin was played here on Tuesday. Uncle Tom turned up here and there during the play, but Mrs. Stowe would not have recognized her story. The affair was more of a burlesque than a dramatization.

There will be a parlor concert at the house of Rev. Dr. Ure, on the evening of Thursday, the 25th inst., commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Admission 10 cents. The proceeds to be devoted in aid of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

'Payne's Business Letter Writer and Book of Commercial Forms," is the title of a neat compilation of use to business men and clerks. The Toronto News company are the Canadian agents, but it can be ordered through any bookseller.

'Doc,' Lorimer, the genial patent medicine man, a Simon-pure Canadian, and a red-hot advocate of Canada first, arrived on Wednesday by the Oconto Oconto way home from a trip to St. Louis. He left by the noon train for the East.

E. P. Walling, an extensive lumber dealer of New York, has been in town for the past week or two, purchasing a cargo of lumber which he shipped east by boat. He handles timber from the principal points between Lake Superior and Florida.

The managers of the Western Fair at London have decided to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors on the grounds. Ladies visiting the show will be glad to bear this. There is no need to make a "banister's roof" out of a fair ground refreshment booth.

Fred Crabbe, who has been rustication on the farm this season, brought us in a lot of corn which was a curiosity. It was composed of eight distinct ears joined at the bottom, seven of which surrounded a central one, and all of which bore grain. It was an uncommon specimen of corn.

W. R. Miller, insurance agent, for a number of years principal of Goderich public school, will shortly remove with his family to Toronto. Mr. Miller has been an excellent citizen, and we are sorry to lose him. We understand that he is meeting with much success in his new profession.

Thos. McBride, who left for Bay City, for a change of scene after a trying illness, returned on Wednesday by the Oconto. Tom gained about twenty pounds in the short time he was away, and worked up a hearty appetite on the Oconto. His many friends are glad to see him himself again.

After harvest a number of farmers and others take trips to the old country. For the information of all such Harry Armstrong, the agent of the Allan line, has made arrangements whereby the fullest advantage of the reduced fares can be obtained. Don't fail to see him if you meditate taking an ocean trip.

Jameson Reid and family will remove to Buffalo next week. Mr. Reid is an industrious man, but work in his line is better across the line than in Canada.

W. C. T. U.—There will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. next Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock in the Temperance hall. A large attendance is hoped for.

A match was played last Saturday afternoon between the cricketers from St. Patrick's ward and those of the rest of the town. The game resulted in a win for the town by 50 runs. This was largely owing to the big score of J. Curry, who ran up 26 in fine form.
