CHANCE & WILLIAMSON.

valor will evaporate in the face of danger, and his sword of state prove to be but a dagger of lead.

The Government organs, having so signally failed in making out a case in the Pacific Scandal, go in for "abusing the plaintiff."

The Morning Herald, like the Globe, has thrown up the sponge in acknowledgement of defeat—Leader of the 25th.

For good, square unadulterated lynx commend us to the Toronto leather organ. Other Tory papers are content to beat about the bush—to equivocate, hedge, etc., but the Leader comes out fair and square and lies.

A Brampton paper says:—On Monday morning last Mr. Joshua Modland, of Chinguacousy had occasion to go under the stable at the Bevere House, here, and seeing a quantity of papers had the curiosity to inspect them, and found that they were the notes and other papers stolen from the office of Messrs. Peaker & Runians, the morning that Lent's Circus visited this place.

A man named Maynard has been arrested in Montreal for robbing the mails. The evidence against him is strong.
