

Power of Magistrates. The following judgment of the Judges, in reference to the powers of County Magistrates in towns in which Police Magistrates have been appointed, was given in the course of the delivery of a decision in reference to the objection to a recognition before the Election Court, and is of interest as it sets at rest a question, as to jurisdiction of County Magistrates, on which considerable discussion has taken place.

The County Magistrate has jurisdiction in the town, except in local cases. The meaning of the statute is to exclude County Magistrates' jurisdiction only in cases arising in town, otherwise he could not take acknowledgments of married women parting with their real estate. Nor could he take proofs of loss arising under insurance policies. It has been held, under 27 Edw. ch. 13, which requires an oath of robbery to be made before a J. P. of the County, that the oath could not be taken before a J. P. of the city of London—(Paley on Convictions, 18, 19.) Nothing but express words in his commission can oust the jurisdiction of a Magistrate for the County, or prevent his exercising it in an incorporated town—(Paley 30, 31.) He may perform acts out of his jurisdiction, where not of a coercive nature. He may take a voluntary recognition—(Bacon's Abridgment, 7th ed., vol. 4, p. 619.) He may do a ministerial act, and take recognitions and informations for these, says Lord Chief Justice Hall, "are acts of voluntary jurisdiction, and may be done in any county." (Regina v. Wharton, et al. 19 U. C. C. Pg.)

Mr. McLennan is building a store on Main street, between McEwing's and Nowry's stores. Mr. Wm. Leopold is erecting a hotel on Queen street. Work has been commenced on the Presbyterian and Wesleyan churches.

The Royal Exchange Hotel, lately occupied by J. C. Hill, has been leased by Mr. E. J. Hicks, of the Hicks House, Mitchell, and will hereafter be known as the Hicks Hotel. The house is being thoroughly renovated, and supplied with new furniture, and the travelling public may now rely upon getting first-class accommodation. The hotel will be under the management of Mr. Wm. Barley.

MANUFACTURE OF COCOA.—"We will now give an account of the process adopted by Messrs. James Epps & Co., manufacturers of dietetic articles, at their works in the Euston Road, London."—See article in Cassell's Household Guide.

THE LAND TENURE IN SCOTLAND.—The British Government has published a return of proprietors of land in Scotland, which throws some remarkable light upon a subject regarding which even among well-informed men in political life there existed a vast amount of misapprehension. It appears that there are 131,530 who hold ground in their own right by various tenures. Of these 40,000 own merely building stances and garden sites in burghs. Those who hold fees of less than an acre, outside burghs number 70,000. There are thus less than 20,000 proprietors of land available for agriculture or pasture. About 15,000 of this latter class derive an income of £10,000 a year, and only 120 more than £1,000 from their land. The extent of possessions is by no means proportionate to the income. Lord Elibank, for instance, from his 1,800 acres of land in East Lothian has a return of about £60,000, while Sir Charles Ross does not get a £1,000 from the thirty times as many acres in Sutherlandshire.

The Good Templars who are on their way from the old country with Mr. Samuel Capper, will lead in Napanea. They are from the laboring classes, and application for their assistance can be made to Mr. W. S. Williams, at that town.

BREAKFAST.—Epps's Cocoa.—GRAVATUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled—"James Epps & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London."

This preparation has been in use in private practice for fifteen years, and is confidently recommended to the public as the most elegant and reliable tonic in use for building up constitutions that have for long time been suffering from Chronic Wasting Diseases, depending upon poor blood. It perfects nutrition by aiding the digestion and assimilation of food, and thereby building up and vitalising all the organs and tissues of the body. In diseases peculiar to women from the female system, it supplies a want long felt by the physician, of a safe and agreeable remedy that may be taken for a protracted period, without any possibility of injury, or of becoming repugnant to the patient.
