CARTERS CURE

SICK HEAD

ACHE

CARTER NEDICINE CO., New York

Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price. London, Wednesday, March 11.

By Charles King, U. S. Army.
AUTHOR OF "THE COLONEL'S DAUGHTER,"
"THE DESERTER," "FROM THE RANKS,"
"DUNRAVEN RANCE," "TWO SOLDIERS," ETC.

With flourish of trumpets and three resounding ruffles the band swept out from the right front, and then all eyes were suddenly greeted by an unaccustomed sight. On the troop, long schooled in military etiquette, the effect was not at the time apparent—neither by word nor sign was there indication that anything unusual had occured; but in the populace, long accustomed to individual visits to the fort and to observation of its military requirements. "Keep off the grass" and by no means intrude upon the space reserved for military exercises, the sensation was immediate. Elbowing his way through the crowd standing at the edge of the parade-ground, with cigar tip-tilted in his mouth, his light spring overcoat thrown back, with the same cool deliberation that characterized all his movements the representative of the Palladium sauntered forth upon the sacred precincts, and, never hesitating until he had almost reached the commanding officer, presently came to a species of until he had almost reached the command-ing officer, presently came to a species of "parade rest" of his own, half sitting on the backs of his hands, which were sup-ported on the knob of his massive cane, and there coolly surveyed the proceeding from the very spot reset wed for the adjutant, one yard to the rear and three to the left of the commanding officer.

When a few moments later the long line of officers halted in front of the colonel and raised their hands in simultaneous salute, he responded with something less than his customary graceful deliberation and inquired—

"What on earth was going on there, that there was so much giggling in ranks? It was mainly in front of you, Mr. Martin. Have you been attempting any witticisms, sir?"

That Terrible Child.

That ubiquitous, loud-voiced, frowsy-haired double-tormented small boy was aboard a north-bound train last week and made his presence felt throughout the journey. A very nice young man, bedecked with bargain jewels and noisy apparel, came into the car and threw his ginger-colored mackintosh over a seak. After removing his overshoes he turned about in his seat and cast a patronizing glance down the car towards the few passengers whom he was allowing to ride.

The loud-voiced kid looked at him several moments in silence. Then he began his criticism:

"Mamma," he said, in a large stage whisper, which is just as audible and twice as effective as a yell, "who is that big boy?"

"Sh!" said his mother, "you must not ask questions, Harry dear."

But Harry went right on: "Ma, what has he got that big piece of glass on his finger for? When I get a big boy, ma, will I have to wear window glass on my dinger, ma."

His mother remonstrated, but it was no

Carter's little Liver Pills must not be contounded with common Catharticor Purgative Pills, as they are entirely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority. Among the candidates for director of public works in Philadelphia is a fellow who pledges himself to furnish free gas and to provide handsome cobbles.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOUTHING SYRUP has been used for children teething, it soothes the child softens the gums, allays all pain, surres wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhes. The bronze hair seon to be fashionable is to be laid loosely on top of the head and held there by two long pins.
