CANADIAN HORSES. The London, Eng., correspondent of the Montreal Trade Bulletin says: "The past season for Canadian horses has been a varied one as to prices and net results. There has been too great a difference between the quality of different shipments and too great a sof many others, to the extreme limits spreading out of consignments and consequent competition of one ship-ment with another. There have been sales in the same week at no less than half a dozen different auction rooms in London, and ruinous prices have been the result. Individual lots, such as good trotters or horses showing style and finish, well broken in, and capable of at once taking the street as carriage animals, have fetched decent prices. But they are isolated. The climax has been reached, during the past two months, when prices have dropped to such an extent that shippers must be right out. One firm handling a large number assures me the trade has been much overdone, and that a long rest is needed over the winter to make up for the exhaustion of demand followspring wheat, 34c to 304c; No. 2 red wheat, 304c to 503c; No. 2 corn. 274c to 274c; No. 2 coats, 18c to 184c; No. 2 rye, 36c; No. 2 barley, 38c to 40; No. 1 flaxseed, 92c to 924c; prime timothy seed, $3 60; mess pork, $7 87\frac{1}{2}$ to $8; lard, $5 42\frac{1}{2}$; short ribs sides, $4 40 to $4 50; dry salted shoulders, $4 50 to $4 75, short clear sides, $4 75 to $4 87\frac{1}{2}$. ing on the heterogeneous offerings of the past three months. Good cabbers, to sell at between 20 and 25 guineas. are wanted periodically, but they must not be mixed. In the Commercial Gazette this week Mr. Hunting talks abount 23 guineas. KIND YOUNG HEARTS. School Trustee Griffin, of No. 3 ward,

Dear Sir,-I send to you lists of the goods donated at Colborne street school Thanksgiving service. We asked the children to bring in names of poor peoof and beyond the city. We found that children's sympathies are not ereed, color nor deserts. Earnest pleas are put in for the children of the undeserving, and even for the victims of their own misdeeds. They argue, "Let them have one pleasant day in the year if we can. Maybe it will make them better."

The sick and afflicted would lack no comfort, nor even luxury, if these children could have their way, and unlike their worldly wise elders, they do not hark back to see if the past of these lives may have been blameable. To teach these children that "it is more blessed to give than to receive" is not the least of our design in this effort, and we earnestly believe it is proving effectual in cultivating a spirit of kindliness. Yours, most respectfully.

M. H. COYNE,

Principal Colborne Street School. M. H. COYNE, cans canned goods, 25 jars fruit, 40 loaves bread, 13 barrels potatoes. DIED IN CALIFORNIA.

Last night Mr. R. J. Munro, chief clerk in the office of Mr. Tiffin, assistant superintendent of the G. T. R. here, received word of the death of his bro-ther Alexander, which occurred at Passadena, Cal., on the previous day. Deceased had been living for five years in California, and at the time of his death was agent for the Equitable Life Assurance Company, Previously he had lived in Colorado, his choice of the Western States being dictated by the desire to improve his health. Deceased was the son of the late Robert Munro, of this city. For a time he was prominent in local Y. M. C. A. circles, but it is eighteen years since he left Lon-don. On Wednesday last his brother here received a letter from him announcing that his wife and two children were in poor health, to t making no allusion to his own health. His death must therefore have been sudden. It has been a great shock to his friends here. The body will be brought to London for interment.

Weak Links.

When the kidneys are weak, or overworked poisons of various kinds are sure to slip past them.

Sickness of some kind is sure to result. The kidneys are filters and their work is to keep poisons out of the circulation. The sickness will depend on the nature of the poison—it may be Malaria or Typhoid poison – or something else.

People with weak kidneys can escape these effects by aiding these organs by kidnev treatment.

People are coming to understand this truth. It explains why Dodd's Kidney Pills though only a kidney medicine set people right, and they get well. It is all because they go straight to the cause which shows itself first in the weak
