Chicago, May 28.—The promised rain did not show up, but instead there were reports of hot winds over the west and northwest, and the worst grop damage dispatches hat have been received at any time. A Toledo firm publishes a summary from more than 4 000 corre-pondents, indicating that there will not be half a crop in the six principal winter wheat States, which usually raised more than two-thirds of the winter wheat produced east of the Rockies. Bad reports are now coming in from the northwest; hot winds are doing the damage that frost failed to do. The news has been particularly alarming, and if the weather map should be dry tomorrow we are likely to see a sensational advance above anything yet recorded this year.

> A SOUND SENTIMENT. In casual conversation with an "Advertiser" representative, Mr. T. F. Kingsmill, the well-written advertisements of whose establishment are always readable, made the true remark that all citizens should heartily unite in promoting London's trade and advicement. "When there are elections to be fought," said Mr. Kingsmill "why, fight them out and get them over. But there is common ground on which all can unite-shoulder to shoulder. namely, in promoting the business and progress of the city."

A LONDONER'S SAD DEATH. Word has just reached this city of the death of Mr. John Walker, formerly of 28 Mount Pleasant avenue, London West, in the hospital in Cleveland, O. Mr. Walker left some time ago on a wandering trip through the country, intending first to visit his sister, Miss A. Walker, of Loughburrow Villa, Kindon, England. His family have heard very little of him since he left, until they received word of his unexpected death, which occurred a month ago from terrible injuries caused by an accident. Mr. Walker leaves a wife and three children, all residing in London, namely, Mrs. Pring, Mrs. T. Trebilcock and Mrs. Sara, wife of the late John Sara, of Glencoe.

UNITED STATES COURT.

Judge Nelson Grants an Injunction in the Angestura Bitters Case.

(From the St. Paul Morning Call, May 10, 1895.) In the case of Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons vs. Wetz, Nangler & Co., in which the complainants, through Attorneys Mc-Cafferty and Noyes, pray for a decree perpetually enjoining the defendants from selling and dealing in any bitters and cordials designed to represent "Angostura Bitters" manufactured by the plaintiffs, Judge Nelson granted the injunction asked for, and to this country 27 years ago. He has says that the defendants are enjoined from dealing in any bitters or cordials not made ston for eighteen years. He leaves be- by the complainants contained in bottles so as to induce the belief that such bitters or and son. The prohibition of the court also goes to the use of signs, cards, trademarks and other articles used in selling bitters.

Does It Pay to Take the Gold Cure? The Gold Cure offers a better paying investment to the man that drinks than anything else on the face of the earth. Thousands of men tell the society were tendered him." Our us that the Gold cure is paying them so handsomely that the original invest-ment looks beggarly, and they feel ashamed to tell how little they paid for so much. If every company or proprietor would set aside a fund with which to procure this benefit for employes, the investment would pay a hundredfold. Under the beneficial power of the Gold Cure unstable and uncertain employes become responsible men. with renewed ability to labor more zealously to work better, toachieve more satisfactory results, and with a fealty in their hearts which impels them to protect the interests of their benefactors, as well as employer, which sur-passes all paid service. Under the potent spell of this cure the cashier with keener intellect refrains from doing that which the whisky evoked brain impels, and with clever vision realizes that as a business investment honesty is the best policy. For particulars apply to the superintendent, Lakehurst Sanitarium, Oakville, George Edwards, 28 Bank of Commerce Chambers, Toronto, or J. A. Tracy, 417 Hill street, London. xt
