but the day was pleasant—a welcome contrast to Saturday's drearinesss—and people looked happy. There were no marked changes in values. Eggs were dearer than for some time past, 17c being the highest price reached. But-50c to 90c; plums, 65c to 75c; grapes, per 10-1b basket, 20c to 35c; pears, 50c to 75c per basket; tomatoes, 25c per basket. Pears are about done. A. M. HAMILTON & SON'S REPORT. London, Tuesday, Oct. 3. Wheat, white, per bu674c to 69c Wheat, red, per bu674c to 69c Wheat, spring, per bu674c to 69c

The grain market was well attended today. Receipts of oats and wheat were good, and in the case of wheat a little higher. Oats brought 78c to 80c, and wheat $1 12 to $1 13 for new, one load going at $1 14. Old wheat is quoted at $1 15 to $1 17, but none offered today. Barley was in good demand at 80c for feeding sample. No other kind of grain offered. Dressed hogs sold at $5 60 to $5 75 for good to choice. Hay was steady at $8 50 to $9 and sold quickly. DEATH OF JAMES ANDERSON

A Well-Known and Worthy Westminster Pioneer Passes Away.

Mr. James Anderson, of Derwent, Westminster township, one of the best known and most highly esteemed residents of Middlesex county, died between 1 and 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. He had been in rapidly failing health for some months from cancer of the stomach, but was bright, cheerful and in possession of all his facuitles to the last, passing away peacefully, without any suffering. Mr. Anderson was born in Ross-shire, Scotland, on Nov. 22, 1829, being the son of Wm. Anderson, a Dumfries-shire man, his mother before her marter remained stationary, but quite firm.

The fruit market was active. Prices were as follows: Peaches, per basket, miled by the New York Produce Extended by the New York Produce Extended by the New York Produce Extended by including the firm.

New York, Oct. 2.—The statement of riage being Miss Withelmina Oliver, of Hawick, so that he was, as he quaintly put it himself, "doubly Scotch—a Highlander by birthplace and a Lowiander by descent." When he was about 9 months old the family moved from Ross-shire to the Isle of Skye, where his father assumed the management of a large sheep farm, the flocks of which numbered some 8,000 head, for Dr. Donald McAskil, on the famous estate of McLeod of McLeod, of Dunvegan Castle. It was there that the fond-ness of the son James for sheep husbandry, was acquired and in which he ever maintained the keenest interest, being of more than local repute in Ontarlo, as a breeder, exhibitor and judge. He was the eldest of the family, all of whom, himself excepted, were born in Skye, the other members being William, killed by accident in Westminster, in March, 1854; John, third concession of Westminster; Mrs.E. Scott and George, of Brooke township; Thomas, West-minster township, and Mrs. A. Brownlee, of North Dorchester. In 1848 the entire family decided to try their fortunes in America, coming by sailing vessel to Quebec, by boat to Hamilton, and thence by teams through the wilderness to Westminster, reaching Andrews drew Beattie's home, on the second concession, July 26. Two hundred acres concession, July 26. Two hundred acres of excellent land in the third concession were shortly taken up from one Col. Airey, a nephew of Col. Talbot, and which has since been the family property. The father died September, 1881, and the mother in March, 1885, and were both interred at the Pond Mills cemetery. After his marriage to Miss Miriam Jenken, Mr. Anderson lived for a number of years Anderson lived for a number of years on the fourth line, subsequently purchasing two additional properties, one of which, lot 2, con.2, became the homestead where he died. His family consisted of six children: Mrs. Levi Willsie, Westminster; Miss Jessie, William, Johanna (deceased), Mrs. Cole, Yarmouth, and Miss Lizzie, to whom and to the widow the sympathies of the community now go out. Mr. Anderson was a stalwart Liberal of the old school, ever taking a keen and active interest in all political and public questions. He was personally acquainted with many of the old-time politicians, such as George Brown, William Macdougall, Sir John Macdonald, and others, and possessed an intimate knowledge of political history, having a most remarkable memory for names, dates and incidents. Many of our older readers will remember in bygone days the vigor and enthusiasm with which he announced the returns on election nights from The Advertiser windows in this city. He sought in every honorable way to promote Reform principles, but never political po-sition or preferment. For 21 successive years he was a school trustee of the section, at the end of which term the community presented him with a the community presented him with a flattering testimonial, and he was afterwards for two terms re-elected to the same position.
