Three Ugly Charges.

John Maxwell Also Held for Stealing $100 From an Hostler-Police Court Notes.

Herbert Wilson, the young man arrested, charged with having taken part in the robbery of Shoebottom's store, South London, had three different charges stated against him at the police court this morning.

The first was for attempted pickpocketing at Port Stanley. On the day of the Irishmen's picnic. Mrs. Jennie Riddle swore that while she was watching the dancing, Wilson put his hand in her pocket. She had her baby in her arms, but managed to grab him by the wrist. The prisoner then pulled himself loose, and walked rapidly away. She called on Mr. J. L. Fitzgerald, who went over to Wilson and asked him what he was doing with his hand in Mrs. Riddle's pocket. Mr. Pitzgerald corroborated this part of Mrs. Riddle's story, and said he asked Wilson his name, and the latter said it was Costello. A little girl standing near by said: "His name is not Costello; it is Wilson." Witness then let the prisoner He was positive as to Wilson being the man.

The second charge was of flimflam-ming Mr. H. French out of $5, while changing some money. Mrs. French, who was in the store at the time, identified Wilson as the stranger who wanted the money changed, but Mr. French would not be sure as to Wilson's identity. The third was a charge of having had a hand in the robbery of Shoebottom's store. A straw hat was found near the scene of the robbery, with Wilson's name inscribed on the inside.

Wilson was committed for trial on all three charges. Bail was refused. WHY HE FAILED.

He was a conscientious Boy and he worked hard. His ambition was to be a lawyer, and though he knew there were more lawyers in the country already than there was law to go around, he swore to succeed and excel, and to force his way up to the top, etc., like so many young greenhorns before him. Late in the night he sat reading by the light of a student's lamp, his aching head swathed in a wet towel. All day the grind went on, from study to lecture room, from lecture room study, with scarcely time to snatch at the poorly-prepared, unenjoyable meals served at his boarding house on Victoria street.

New York, Oct. 31 .- Tim Kearns, of Boston, knocked out Martin Flaherty, The fall examinations came on in of Lowell, Mass., in the second round of which was to have been a 25-round their due course. The Boy felt like an athlete over-trained. He wrote with bout, at the Hercules Club House, in painful effort. He could put no spirit into his pen. He had to force his mind to think, and the strain was slowly Hartford, Conn., Oct. 31 .- Young Kenbreaking down his will. ny, the light-weight champion of the west, upheld that title here last night,

He struggled through somehow. But the end found him fagged, thin and "You look completely broken down," said Judge Williamson kindly. "You need a tonic. Eat lots of wholesome food and take plenty of sleep. The Boy thought of the meal awaiting him at the cheap boarding house, and shuddered. His stomach weakened and turned at the thought.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets would have changed all that, but he-like many others-didn't know that the secret of nervousness and general "run-down" is indigestion. And so he was "plucked" and became broken-hearted into the bargain.

EAGER RECRUITS FOR THE SEVENTH

Depleted Companies Rapidly Filling Again-Encouraging Sports-The Parade.

The Seventh Fusiliers parade last night was one of the most successful of the season. When the reorganization took place about the beginning of the year, it was rather hard to fill up the companies, the thought of belonging to the militia having gained a rather disagreeable flavor in the city. Since the reorganization, however, and especially at the present time, this idea has been completely dispelled, and the fact that there are now many eager applicants who are admitted only by the vote of those already members, proves how thoroughly the opinion throughout the city has changed. At the door of every company's room, last night, there were a number of young men desirous of being received into the battalion, and Sergt.-Major Gregory was kept busy drilling the "rookles"

in the primary movements.
Two nights a week are given to the instruction of the commissioned offi-cers, and two to the non-coms., while one is set apart for the men to use the hall for basket ball or other sports, which are being taken up. It is the intention among the officers to encourage everything in the way of manly sport, and for this purpose they will allow the hall to be open more than one night in a week, if necessary.

A short march was made through the park, and Major Cronyn, who was in command, put the companies through some battalion drill while on the move.

Young Man Sent for Trial on DISASTER ON

Steamship Rammed a New York Ferryboat Near Her Dock.

The Disabled Vessel Sank in Ten Min utes in Seventy Feet of Water-One Body Recovered and One Person

New York, Oct. 31 .- The Savannah Line steamship City of Augusta rammed the Pennsylvania passenger ferryboat Chicago in East River at 1 o'clock this morning. The ferryboat sank in ten minutes in 70 feet of water, within 150 feet of her pier, between Cortland and Liberty streets. About 50 passengers were aboard, including several women and children.

Rowboats from the wharves and tugboats in the river rescued many passengers. Others swam ashore. After a night spent in dragging the north river in the vicinity of Cortland street, the police announced that they were able to find but one body, that of John Bryson, a driver of a mail wagon. It is believed that all the passengers, with the exception of Bryson were saved. Of the crew of seven, but one man is missing, John Vroom, the fireman, and it may be possible that he was caught in the stoke hole.

When the Chicago left Jersey City at 12:04 a.m., Capt. Wm. Durham was in the foreward pilot house, directing the boat personally, and one of his deck hands was at the wheel. The night was perfectly clear. The tide was ebbing fast, and Capt. Durham, on this account, was obliged to keep his, boat headed we'll up stream. As he neared the New York shore he put his helm over to head into the slip, and as the Chicago swung around the captain caught sight of the City of Augusta bearing down on him, coming up stream and very close. Durham gave two blasts of his whistle to signify his intention to pass to starboard, and putting his helm aport, he rang the signal to go ahead at full speed. The City of Augusta, Capt. Durham says,

DID NOT REPLY TO THE SIGNAL but kept right in her course. A mo-ment later the City of Augusta rammed the Chicago just abaft her paddle wheel, on the starboard side. A scene of wild excitement followed. The passengers, most of whom had risen to go to the forward end of the ferry-boat, to be prepared to leave as she reached her slip, made a wild scramble for life-preservers. Fortunately there on what you buy. were few women on board, not more than five or six, and at first they were shoved to the rear. George Blumenstock and George Ray, truckmen, who were coming over to the city with their loads of milk, jumped into the middle of the struggling mass and yelled, "Hands off! The women first.

SAVE THE WOMEN!"

A score of men took up the shout, and in a trice the women were fitted with life-preservers. The small number of passengers did not exhaust the supply of life-preservers; but many, in their excitement, did not stop to put them on, but leaped overboard unprovided. It is feared that some such persons must have gone down in the chilly waters before help came.

The tug boat Chauncey M. Depew reached the scene before the Chicago sank, and took 35 people from the ferryboat and out of the water. The fireboat, the police boat and several launches were called to the scene, and did valuable work in rescuing people.

STOMACH

Messrs. RADWAY & CO.: Dear Sirs,-I know a business man on the east side of town who has for years been ailing and suffering agonizing pains in the stomach. The doctors from Prof. Jacoby down to others by the dozens, could neither effect a cure nor could they even tell what the malady was. He, a few years ago, crossed the Atlantic to consult German doctors, without result. I used to call at his store every few months and heard his tale of woe. He said while ill he was never able to retain his food, and at certain times of day he was attacked with an agonizing pain which lasted an hour or so, when he acted as a madman, breaking chairs, etc.. and having to give up business for the time being. Food never stayed in his stomach longer than half an hour. Yesterday, after a lapse of eighteen months, I called again, and to my surprise he was still alive and looking well. I asked after his health. He said he has been well for over a year and has gained 40 pounds in weight. I wanted to know what doctor had cured him. This is what he told me: About a year ago or over a man came to his store telling him he had been sick very much the same as he was for some time, and tried Radway's Pills, which quickly cured him. He at once decided to use the pills. The druggist did not have any, and tried to give him another kind, but as he insisted on Radway's, they were procured for him the next day, He only took one at night and he immediately felt better. He kept up for a time to take the pills, and from the first day to this day his malady never returned. S. H. G. ULRICH.
