No Sacrifice of quality on our price altar. We do not sell "cheap" clothing, but we sell clothing cheaply. The actual number of dollars paid out not a criterion of cheapness. It's quality that counts. We give you that, then fit you well, and you that, then fit you well, and lastly charge you just as little as we possibly can.

Askin Street Methodists Extend a Call to Successor to Mr. Howson.

The quarterly official board of the Askin Street Methodist Church met last night and decided to extend an invitation to Rev. Alfred Brown, of Windsor, to become the pastor of the church for the term beginning July, present pastor, Rev. W. G. Howson, to remain for a fourth year, his three years' pastorate expiring in June next, but Mr. Howson last night informed the board that he had decided to accept a call to the pastorate of the church at Mitchell. This action on the part of Mr. Howson is much regretted by the official board and also by the nembers of the congregation generpopular during his residence among The official board expects a reply

FIREMEN ASKING

Something which has been long expected in fire brigade circles is about to come to a head at last-the matter of an increase in salary for the firemen. Already, it is understood, a petition is being circulated among the first-year men praying for an increase. It is pointed out that the firemen nov start at about $1 23 a day for what is really 24 hours' work. Prices of living have gone up all along the line nd wages have gone up in all lines of business save the fire brigade. The men claim that it is next to impossible to live on the wages they now receive the first year, and but few will dispute the statement, True, since Chief Clark took hold of the brigade he has done his best to secure more clothing for the men, but even with this additional clothing the men are but poorly paid. A dollar and 23 cents a day is no inducement to any strong, healthy, intelligent man nowadays, and con sequently the city has found no end of difficulty in inducing men to start at the minimum wage. It is pointed ou by citizens who have given the matter thought that if first-class men are to secured, better wages must be paid and the sooner the increase is made the council not sitting, unless a special meeting is called, until Nov. 7. In the running for the city clerkship today, Mr. James Bell, assistant reasurer of London, appears to have the best of the race. It is known that f the mayor and aldermen are willing Mr. Bell stands ready to accept the position. We would be no stranger t the office, of course having frequently acted as city clerk during the absence of both Messrs. Edwards and Kings ton. If Mr. Bell is made city clerk, a vacancy will be created in treasurer's office, and it is likely that the present clerks will be moved up a notch. Treasure Pope is very loth to part with Mr. Bell, but it is understood be will not stand in the way

The petition will be presented two weeks from tonight, when No. 3 comnittee will meet in regular session.
