

AVIATOR-POLICEMEN ARE NOW PREDICTED

Los Angeles Chief of Police at Convention Says They Will Soon Be Needed.

[Canadian Press.]
Grand Rapids, Mich., June 17.—The International Association of Chiefs of Police, in annual convention here, expected to decide today upon the 1915 meeting place. Cincinnati, Los Angeles and Oakland, Cal., were candidates for the next convention, with most of the delegates favoring one or the other of the coast cities.

A parade of fire-fighting apparatus and a sight-seeing trip around the city were arranged for the entertainment of the visiting officers in the afternoon. The election of officers is to be held Friday. Uniform automobile traffic regulations for all the cities of Canada and the United States, and the consideration of moving "victims" in detection of crime were among the matters considered at yesterday's session.

The matter of regulating automobile traffic came up in the form of a motion at the afternoon session. It was proposed that the association seek to secure in all the cities of the United States and Canada action for uniform rules and signals for regulating automobile traffic.

The aviator-policemen patrolling a beat in the air will be an addition to the forces of metropolitan cities before many years, according to Charles Sebastian, chief of police of Los Angeles.

TURKS TRY TO STOP EMIGRATION OF GREEKS

State of Siege Said To Be Proclaimed Along the Dardanelles.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 17.—An Exchange Telegraph Company's dispatch from Constantinople today says a state of siege has been proclaimed by the Turkish Government at Smyrna in Asia Minor and along the Dardanelles, in order to put a stop to the emigration of Greek residents in Turkey.

The question of the expulsion or forced migration of Greeks from Turkish territory has recently been the cause of the expression by the Greek Government of sharp protests and a veiled threat of war. It has been generally reported that both Greece and Turkey were making preparations for armed conflict.

John Cowan Makes Telling
Address at Courtwright Meeting.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
COURTWRIGHT, June 16.—John Cowan, K.C., of Sarnia, addressed a fine meeting here tonight and was given a great reception as he discussed issues of the campaign and made known his attitude in regard to supporting Leader Rowell's ban on the sale of liquor. Seventy-five per cent of the men now at the prison farm, he said, were there because of drink. Addresses were given by John Weir and Rev. John Morrison. C. R. Durant presided.

LIQUOR INTERESTS SHOW THEIR HANDS IN S. WELLINGTON

Man Who Is Managing Conservative Campaign Same Who Fought Local Option Six Times.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

GUELPH, June 16.—"Three cheers for Sam Carter," cried one life-long admirer of the Rowell candidate in South Wellington as he rose to address an immense gathering that packed both old and new city halls tonight.

Enthusiasm was unbounded and the old civic stone pile rang with cheer after cheer for the Independent Liberal candidate in South Wellington.

Following the Conservative meeting Monday night it gave a fine chance for comparison, and the odds were all for Mayor Carter holding this Tory centre.

G. B. Ryan opened with a splendid tribute to N. W. Rowell and his platform. Such a leader and such a candidate as Mayor Carter formed a remarkable combination, he said. "I don't care a continental," said Mr. Ryan, "whether you are a Tory or a Liberal. This is a great big moral question, the abolition of the bar, and you must answer it."

Forgetting Old Party Lines.
Alex Simmers, who has taken a prominent part in the hydro-radical scheme, followed Mr. Ryan. "We are forgetting the old party lines in this contest," said Mr. Simmers. "The two great things that interest me are the abolition of the bar and the hydro-radical scheme, and I am thoroughly convinced that Mayor Carter will be the safe man to handle these. Don't let any party decide these issues for you, but look at them square in the face, and you can't do anything but vote Carter," declared Mr. Simmers amidst great applause.

From Labor's Standpoint.

Mr. Camie, president of the Trades and Labor Council, said that the hand of the Whitney Government had been forced for years before they put the compensation act through. Touching the abolition of the bar, the labor man said, "If the union men of Ontario could only see how the bar is sapping the best that life has for them, they would not only get it, but they would get it right now."

A damnable thing to the labor cause," said Mayor Carter, the candidate, was given a tremendous reception on rising, and it was some minutes before he was able to proceed. He paid a tribute to Eion Adam Beck, with whom he had worked in the Hydro Electric Scheme. "The men who are behind the Hydro scheme in this district," declared the Mayor, are nearly all on my platform here tonight. We don't go it as politicians but as men seeking to better rural and city conditions in Ontario."

Schoolfield's Manager.
On the temperance issue Mayor Carter was particularly effective. "I have fought six local option fights here," he declared, "and in every one of them the liquor campaign was conducted by the same man who is managing the campaign for H. C. Schofield right now."

The candidate was proud to be called the Rowell standard bearer, and it would be one of the proudest moments of his life when he was able to go to Toronto to work with "Premier" Rowell.

Hugh Guthrie Speaks.
Hugh Guthrie, M. P., followed Mayor Carter and in an old time fashion, Adam Beck, on the general issues of the day, he announced that he would work and vote for Samuel Carter night and day until the victory was won.

DEMAND THE SUPPRESSION OF REDMOND VOLUNTEERS

Supporters of Ulster Volunteers Attack the Government.

LONDON, June 16.—Some of the Unionists who have been the strongest supporters of the Ulster Volunteers, including Andrew Bonar Law, Lord Robert Cecil and Leopold Charles Amery, attacked the Government tonight in the House of Commons for its failure to suppress the Nationalist Volunteers. They declared that the Ulstermen should have been checked in the beginning. The movement is now under the control of John Redmond.

This line of attack elicited laughter from the Liberal side. A motion to censure the Government was lost by a vote of 285 to 225.

The Situation In S. Oxford

(This is the second of a series of articles on the political situation in Western Ontario, from a Staff correspondent of The Advertiser.)

[BY A. D. CLARKE.]

INGERSOLL, June 16.—South Oxford will go Liberal by a good majority. Col. Mayberry should considerably increase his lead of 203 in the last election.

The temperance question is not concerning the electorate, except in Tillsonburg—the only spot in the riding where licenses exist, and the home of Victor Sinclair, the Conservative candidate. Tillsonburg has been a Conservative community. It gave Wm. McGhee a lead of 130 over Col. Mayberry in 1911. Only two other places gave Conservative majorities, and these margins were small. Dereham Township, long a Conservative section, only gave the Tory candidate 22 the better of it out of 738 votes polled, and in his own township of North Oxford Mr. McGhee's margin was only 15.

QUESTIONS OF CONCERN.

The question of the depletion of the rural population, education in rural districts and agricultural interests are the matter of chief concern in the great proportion of the riding. The feeling is strong against the administrative heads of the Departments of Education and Agriculture, and Col. Mayberry has made warm friends in urging the Government to appoint a commission to solve, if possible, the rural problem, and improve conditions on the farm.

The extravagance of the Whitney administration has aroused the rural electorate, particularly in view of the cut that has been made in the grants to rural public schools in order that funds might be forthcoming to assist in this extravagance.

Mr. Sinclair is making his debut as a political aspirant. He is a young man and practices at law in Tillsonburg. Outside of his own municipality he is not well known. In this respect he is not as strong a candidate in a straight party contest as was Mr. McGhee, the former candidate.

The South Oxford Conservative Association had not considered Mr. Sinclair until a little over a week ago. The man they wanted was Dr. Coleridge, and the doctor would assuredly have been a popular candidate. Eminent physicians, however, in consultation, advised him that his constitution would not stand a campaign, and that even the excitement of canvassing a man might result in his collapse.

LIBERALISM "ON ITS TOES."

The vote in the last election was not a large one for the riding. Liberalism was not "on its toes" as it is now. There was a peculiar phase to the vote in South Oxford, and that was that neither Mr. McGhee nor Col. Mayberry scored largely in his own municipality.

In Ingersoll the Colonel received a majority of only eighteen. The vote did not come out as it will this time.

If the temperance issue is taken seriously into account, the Liberal majority will be much larger. Since the election of 1911, Ingersoll voted to go dry with a majority of 318. There is a substantial temperance sentiment in Tillsonburg, which should even up the vote in the home of the Conservative candidate.

Mr. Sinclair "should worry" about the outcome. He is at present more or less obscure as a lawyer outside of his town. The advertising certainly will not hurt his practice, and being left at home will permit him to attend to any increased business that may come his way.

CONSERVATIVE GIVES THOUSANDS TO AID ROWELL AND REFORM

J. W. Flavell, Former Owner of Toronto News, Changes
From Party to Principle, in Effort to Abolish the Bars.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, June 16.—A contribution of many thousands of dollars has been made to the fund of the Liberal party in the province of Ontario, from J. W. Flavell, the millionaire financier, former owner of the Toronto News, and pronounced member of the Conservative party.

Mr. Flavell thoroughly believes in the temperance platform of Mr. Rowell to improve the social conditions of this province. Mr. Flavell has therefore changed his support for the election from party to policy, and has placed a substantial portion of his great fortune at the disposal of Liberal party managers to be used in meeting the expenses of his present campaign against the continuance of bars in the province of Ontario.

Mr. Flavell is only one of the many leaders of moral thought, who, for this election, have placed their convictions before the call of party.

ELECTION RESULT IN DOUBT SAYS TORY

Dr. Moore, of Listowel, Declares All Temperance People in Earnest.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

LISTOWEL, June 16.—Jas. Torrance, Conservative candidate in the coming election, made votes for the Liberals this evening by the tactics he adopted at a rally in the local club rooms. He attempted by means of a map to misrepresent conditions in regard to the liquor traffic now and when the Conservatives came into power.

He said during the meeting that while he might think it he hesitated to call Mr. Rowell "a scoundrel."

A bomb was exploded at the meeting, when Dr. Jas. Moore, one of the best known Conservatives in the riding and former president of the local Moral and Reform Association, arose and said that in his opinion there was a great deal of uncertainty as to the results of the coming contest for the Conservatives. He roundly scored the three-fifths clause as an injustice and as absolutely unnecessary.

"As a result of it," he declared, "local option as it now stands is of little use. There is no doubt that if the temperance people were given an even vote and fair chance they could sweep the province."

He concluded by stating that the temperance people are thoroughly in earnest, both Conservatives and Liberals, and if Mr. Torrance was returned he might do well to remember this and carry some of his impressions to the Government.

will vote for Mr. Cowan. Party ties are melting and the result of the contest cannot be "doped out," as in most elections.

A meeting held to advance the temperance cause by the local branch of the Dominion Alliance, in Shilo, today, had a large attendance of both Liberals and Conservatives. Stirring addresses were delivered by Rev. H. D. Moyer, a leading Conservative, and Mayor Strutt. The enthusiasm with which the speakers' views were received show that party politics will not play a very large part in the election, and that this will not be a "Grit or Tory" campaign, but a fight between liquor interests and temperance voters.

Many temperance Conservatives who have fought whisky out of their own municipalities under local option, seem unwilling to even appear to join hands with liquor men.
