Gross Incompetence Is Charged by Percy Ashton, 45 Victor Street.

BENNETT SILENT

Charges of incompetence are made against one of the valuators of the city assessment department today by Percy Ashton, of 45 Victor street.

He claims that the valuator a few days ago came to his house, sat on the veranda for a few minutes, raised the assessment of his house $500, and went away. When Mr. Ashton complained to the assessment department of this summary fashion of raising the assessed value of his house, the valuator came back withing twenty-four hours and made a thorough inspection of the house. The assessment, however, remained with the extra $500.

"My complaint as a ratepayer," says Mr. Ashton.
