TRY EXAMINATION

Paper Is Issued by Department On Religious Education.

Approximately 300 Normal School students wrote on an examination dealing with religious education yesterday afternoon, the paper being issued by the department of religious education of the provincial Normal back—who are up frequently at night—will welcome the news that "Fruit-a-tives", the wonderful mediteaching course.

The paper consisted of seven questions, of which four were to be answered, the time limit being 40 minutes. The students were from the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist denominations, 'Rev. W. Reid, Rev. Mr. Murphy, Mr. Hoffar and Miss "Fruit-a-tives." In a short time the swelling went down. Now, she is the swelling went down. Now, she is the swelling term of the family."

Graham presided.

The first question asked why the gospels were central in the Sunday school curriculum, while the second asked for the content of Jesus' teaching on the Kingdom of God.

The personality of Christ was dealt The personality of Christ was dealt with in the next question, while the adaptability of stories of Christ for little children was also on the list, the reason for this being asked. Question five asked what form the presentation of Christ to the juniors should take. What qualities in biography make it especially service—whe in the religious education of inable in the religious education of intermediates was another question, while the students were asked, in the last, to state the general principles that should determine the selection of lesson courses for young people.
