MR. WATERS EXTENDS THE POWER F THE FEMALE FRANCHISE.

Fifty Minutes in the Legislature-The Opposition Score a Point on a Crown Lands Debate-Notes.

The house for a wonder opened sharp on time yesterday, and the sitting lasted about fifty minutes. About half a bushel of petitions were presented. The premier handed in one from Oxford county, asking the house to prefer a claim to the dominion government for the refunding to the municipalities the amounts given as bonueus to the Credit Valley, Port Dover and Lake Huron, and Brantford and Port Burwell. railways, on account of their having been taken out of local control and declared subject to the deminion railway law. When this petition was presented it was received with cries of "hear, hear!" from the oppos sition leaders.

Mr. Hardy presented the report of the committee appointed to strike standing committees, which read very much like a page of the city directory.

Dr. Dowling, the thrice-elected of South Renfrew, was introduced by Mr. Hardy and Mr. McLaughlin. He wore a neatlyfitting black frock coat, and after shaking hands with Mr. Speaker walked with a rapid, jaunty air to his seat near the foot of the back row on the government side, amid loud and repeated applause from his fellow partizans.

Among the first readings were several bills to amend the municipal act, which appears destined to go through the usual course of patching and tinkering. When Mr. Waters introduced a bill to enable Mr. Wate unmarried women and widows to vote at elections for members of the legislature it was received with applause, laughter, and cries of "hear, hear !" and "lost !" Mr. Hardy presented a batch of voluminous looking returns respecting timber limits, colonization roads, lots sold, the persons employed as caretakers br wood-rangers of public land, etc.

The opposition scored a point in the debate which ensued on a motion by Mr Carnegie for a return showing the several ots in eleven townships in Peterboro and Haliburton counties, soid, located or ap-plied for since January, 1880, with the dates of sale, the purchasers, the prices and terms of payment and other informa-tion. In exercising the second sec tion. In speaking to the motion he stated that a previous return of the same kind which the government had brought down was defective in some important particulars. He intimated that the reason for moving for this return was that Mr. oe was operating extensively in some o

Mr. Pardee kicked. He said that the government was always willing to afford any reasonable information, but that the return called for would involve a vast amount of labor, and that no sufficient reason for it had been shown. If the former return was defective, it was because the mover had not clearly stated what he wished to obtain.

Mr. Wood denied this statement. He asserted that the former return was defective in not giving the prices and terms of sale, except in a few cases. There were, he urged, frequent applications to the department for lots which had been unfairly and unjustly taken up by Coe.
