RICE LEWIS & SON. TORONTO, ONT. 246

There is a fair amount of business doing in this branch of trade, in both sole and blocks.

WEST TORONTO JUNCTION.

Prices are steady, but the volume is not large owing to manufacturers closing Acres 1. Prices are steady, but the volume is not large owing to manufacturers closing down for stock-taking, but immediately after New Year's we may look for an active and good trade. If the trade can tide over the next two months it is thought there will be more confidence in the future. A good deal depends upon the next 60 days in the leather and boot and shoe trade. Payments are pretty fair, better perhaps than in almost any other branch of trade.

Hides; Skins and Wool.

Trade in this department has been fairly active during the week. Hides are coming in freely and are 25c less than last week, Supplies offered are rendily taken up at the reduced rate, which leaves a small margin for selling; Sheepskins from $1 to $1.10 a piecegand in active domand. Wool continues firm but manufacturers are still holding off with the expectation that the sharp advance would not be maintained, but it is whispered that they are allowed the expectation that the sharp advance would not be maintained, but it is whispered that they are allowed the expectation that the sharp advance would not be made to the Logislative Assembly of the market is bare of desirable stocks for blankets and low class tweeds. Bills are fairly met. Yet there are some wanting renewals to tide them are the same as last week, with the exception of sheepskins.
