HAMILTON, May 8.—About six years ago
William Gale, who worked in a brickyard in this city, removed to Sanborne, Dak., and settled on a farm adjoining one owned by his mother. Everything prospered under his management and Mr. Gale was rapidly becoming wealthy One afternoon along about April 1 last he did not return from his work in the evening as usual. Nothing was thought of this, however, as his mother supposed he had gone to Cooperstown, not far away, where he had some acquaintances. Days went by, however, and he did not return. His relatives began to feel alarmed, and a strict enquiry as to his whereab uts was instituted, but without success. Mr. Gale had disant this basket upon his arm and has a face as black as ebony, answers to the name of Ivory Temple. A little colored female of Ivor
