

ease to the little boys we have in our House, and so we refused him. Monsieur Gand,²² a very charitable man, has this child's sores dressed and dresses them himself; if he recovers, we will place him in our Seminary.

As to the Apostate, he came [51] to see us, pretending that he wished to be reconciled to the Church; we demanded some proof of his good will; namely, that he should come to see us, not when the Savages were having a famine, which forced him to seek the French, but in the time of their abundance; if he returns then, we will receive him, and keep him several months before giving him permission to enter the Church.
