

Most humbly I present a part of my Observations, which tends to the glory of God, and an everlasting good to all great Brittain and Ireland :