PERSONALS.

Charles Forster, so well known as the New York forwarding agent of apples for Simons, Jacobs & Co., of Great Britain, died of typhoid fever on the 19th of April. Many of us remember this gentleman's able address on the export trade of apples before the American Pomological Society last September at Buffalo.

Mr. W. H. Hunt has been appointed superintendent of the greenhouses at the O. A. C., Guelph. He has been well and favorably known to our readers for some years past through his excellent contributions on floriculture, and in his new position he will have still better opportunities to help us in our work.

The Ven. Archdeacon Mulholland of Owen Sound, president of the affiliated local Horticultural Society of that town, passed away on the 19th of April. Foremost in every effort for civic improvement, as well as in matters educational and religious, the loss of such a man is a most serious one, not only to his own community but also to the country at large.

Export of Fruit.-Now that Mr. W. A. McKinnon is sent to Great Britain to remain a year studying the conditions of the fruit trade at the consumers' end of the line, we ought to reach some definite information which will help us in our business. however, we have not been given his Eng-
