NOTE.—Beside the above, three persons have subscribed for ten copies each, who do not wish to have their names published.

RECTORY SCHOOL,

CHAMBLY, C. E.,

REV. GEORGE B. DODWELL, M. A.,

Master.

BOARD.—Parties requiring good comfortable Board, at a reasonable figure, can have the same by making immediate application to R. P. ISAACSON, 67 St. Gabriel Street.

[We recommend persons who come from the country or other cities, to call at this house. It is managed by persons of great experience, and strict attention will be given to comforts of all who visit them.—EDITOR.]

EDUCATION OF THE HAND.—Professor LONG'S Private Educational Institute, 607 Craig Street, where Ladies and Gentlemen are daily acquiring unapproachable excellence in writing—many of them of less than one month. Professor Long's method in teaching is entirely new, and a wonderful improvement on the old style. Copy-plates and books are entirely ignored. Arithmetic, Book-keeping, Composition, Commercial Correspondence, &c. The highest of city references.
