

The following accounts were taken up, passed, and directed to be paid :

Athenæum office,	£23	8	3½
Do.	4	19	9
J. Bowes & Son,	5	10	0
Do.	1	10	0
R. Nugent,	0	6	0
B. N. American office,	0	5	0
A. & W. McKinlay,	5	4	0
R. H. Wetmore,	0	13	9
Acting G.S. W. L. Bell,	7	10	0
	<hr/>
	£49	6	9½

On motion,

Resolved, That a standing Committee of Finance, of three members, be appointed, to report on all Bills against the G. D., to audit the G. T. accounts, and superintend the financial interests of the Division, and that the G. Scribe be instructed to procure and present to the said Committee all bills for expenses incurred during the quarter preceding each session.

Brothers Barratt, Quinan, and Gallagher, were appointed that Committee.

On motion,

Resolved, That the sum of Thirty Pounds be appropriated as the salary of Grand Scribe for the present year.

On motion,

Resolved, That the thanks of this Grand Division be given to the Subordinate Divisions for the use of this room.

P.G.W.P. McMurray moved the following resolution, seconded by Brother Thompson :

Resolved, That this Grand Division feeling impressed with the great importance of County Temperance Associations being formed, and of quarterly Conventions being held in each County, for the discussion of the principles of Total Abstinence, and bringing prominently before the public the great question now especially engaging the attention of temperance men in relation to legislation upon the liquor traffic, hereby recommend to the members of Subordinate Divisions to encourage the formation of such associations.

Passed unanimously.

Minutes of this evening's session read and approved.

The G. D. was then closed to meet at Shelburne on Wednesday, January 26, 1853, at 10 A.M.

WILLIAM SCOTT,

Grand Scribe.