

Losing themselves in heaven's huge embrace,
 The glancing foam-wraiths of a rock-bound sea,
 Blast-sifted snows—all these do clothe thy form
 In raiment beautiful, my gracious
 Queen!
 Thou art of royal yet of humble
 mien,
 Sweet as the flower and mighty as the storm.
 And thou art Mother and I thy feeble child!
 Before that Son, who is my Judge,
 thou art
 Forever interceding, Mother mild,
 For one who knows not well his own small heart.
 Dear Mother, pray for me! and to thy son
 Stretch forth thy hand when all his sands are run.

PRIORUM TEMPORUM
 FLORES.

Mr. F. J. McDougall, '93, one of our most distinguished alumni in Ottawa, has recently entered into law partnership with Mr. Taylor McVeity, City-Solicitor. To him and his partner we wish unlimited success and prosperity.

Mr. John Louis O'Neill, a commercial graduate of '95, has recently informed the Bird that he is soon to become a member of the Benedicts. May happiness and contentment be the lot of Mr. O'Neill and his bride through life.

THE OWL extends its sympathy to Rev. E. C. Cornell, O. M. I., on the serious accident which happened to his brother. We are informed that though the accident nearly proved fatal, Mr. Cornell is improving slowly.

We hope to soon hear of his complete recovery.

In a recent issue of the Buffalo Catholic Union and Times an interesting account is given of the presentation of a flag to the soldiers at Fort Porter about to leave for Tampa, by the pupils of the Holy Angels, school in that city. This school is connected with the Holy Angels, Church which is under the care of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. Among the names of the fathers mentioned as assisting at the services we find those of Fathers Dorgan, Dacey and Tighe. Father Tighe has been absent from us but a short time, and though we feel his loss, we rejoice to hear that every success is attending him in his new field. Father Dacey has been obliged to give up professorial duties for a time owing to some trouble with his eyes. We hope his recovery will be immediate and complete. We always rejoice to hear of Father Dorgan on whom we count as one of our staunchest friends.

At the presentation of Richelieu on Very Rev. Father Superior's feast day there were many old students present to do honor to our new rector. We find among them the following names, a very imperfect list of those that were here on that evening: Rev. R. J. McEachan, Mt. St. Patrick; Rev. D. D. McMillan, Alexandria; Rev. I. French, Pembroke; Rev. D. R. Macdonald, Chrysler; Rev. E. Groulx, Cathedral Ottawa; Rev. F. X. Brunette, St. Malachi; Rev. A. Motard, Cantley; Rev. C. Poulin, Chelsea; Rev. F. L. French, Brudenell; Rev. P. T. Ryan, Renfrew; Rev. F. J. McGovern, Richmond; Rev. J. C. Dunn and Rev. W. Cavanagh, Gloucester; Rev. P. Corkery, Huntley; Rev. O.
