

A. M. TYSON, P. C.

Bro. A. M. Tyson was a Charter member of Rathbone Lodge, No. 7, but as at that time Rathbone members met on Saturday evening, and as Bro. Tyson was an earnest worker and a prominent merchant in our City, he decided that he could do more good for the Order by connecting himself with a lodge that met on some other evening, his choice at that time being Granville, No. 3. Any member of the Order can always meet our genial brother upon the floor of Granville Lodge every Wednesday evening, looking after the interest of Granville Lodge in particular and the Order in general. Bro. Tyson is one of Vancouver's most prominent wholesale and retail fish merchants, having a large establishment at 112 Cordova Street. You will find him always ready to greet any sojourning knight visiting Vancouver. Our brother is also an active member of the Uniform Rank. Bro. Tyson was born at Selkirk, Scotland, and emigrated to British Columbia in 1882. After traversing British Columbia he decided that Vancouver was his choice. At that time Vancouver was but a wilderness. His keen instinct foresaw that Vancouver was destined to be a large commercial centre, and he decided to cast in his lot with this City.

BRO. A. J. SCOTT, P. C.

Past Chancellor A. J. Scott was born at Charlottetown, P. E. Island, and has barely reach the 27th milestone. Bro. Scott is a Charter member of Crusader, No. 19, where he filled a number of offices and became a Past Chancellor nearly two years ago.

In business circles he is well and successfully known as the junior member of Mellon & Scott, one of the oldest Insurance and Shipping establishments in Vancouver.

Wonders will never cease. In looking through the store of Davidson Brothers, the Jewellers, you will be surprised to see the large stock of diamond rings, gem rings, gents' rings, wedding rings, diamond-set watches, silver watches, scarf-pins, chatelaines, cuff-buttons, hat-pins, brooches, buckles, belts, cut-glass, solid silver articles of all descriptions, clocks and a thousand and one other articles suitable for presents. They keep the right thing for every person, old, middle aged, or young, and they can please you. You are at liberty to come in and examine their stock. They greet you courteously and explain every detail in the manufacture of the goods. They keep a first-class optician, who is willing at all times to test your eyes free of any cost: whether you purchase or not, you will find Mr. Allan, who has charge of that department, a first-class fellow that can fit all cases.

Bro. Robert Brooke, one of our greatest Pythian workers in Vancouver, we are pleased to note has been elected Grand Representative for Rathbone Lodge, No. 7, to succeed Bro. G. W. DeBeck, who will be unable to attend the Rossland session. Bro. Brooke is the M. of F. of Rathbone Lodge, and in that capacity has labored hard and successfully for its best interests. He has already attended Grand Lodge as a representative, also as a private member, and in every case has been of assistance, and taken special interest in the business of the Grand Lodge.

BRO. GEORGE R. MAXWELL.

To our brother who has done so much for our paper, and whose name is so well and favorably known by our entire membership, we have again to offer on behalf of all members, our sincere and deep sympathy in the loss he has so recently sustained by the death of his mother Mrs. Maxwell was advanced in years and had been a great sufferer. She resided with her son, Bro. G. R. Maxwell, and had every care and attention that loving children could bestow.

In his many troubles and afflictions, our brother has always had the genuine sympathy and friendship of his brother knights, and we wish for him many years of peace and happiness.

A FAR CRY.

The Editor of the "True Knight" is in receipt of the following satisfactory epistle from a brother in far away Montreal:

Dear Sir and Bro.—Another absent-minded beggar wishes to enclose postal note for subscription to the "True Knight." I have been receiving your paper for some time and always read it carefully, and I feel a much better man for doing so. We have a truly noble Order. The more I see, and hear of it, the better I like it.

The articles which appear in your paper are well selected, and it has given me much pleasure on several occasions to read them to my fellow-members, and urge upon them the amount of good which can be accomplished by doing likewise, in following the many noble examples which we have before us.

We, in the Province of Quebec, are heavily handicapped, as you have probably seen, by the heated discussions which appeared lately in the columns of the "Pythian Review." Notwithstanding our handicap, we are growing slowly but surely, and in the five lodges we have here, we have a goodly number of hard workers and "true knights," with whom I count it a great honor to be associated.

Pythianism is something like religion. Some of its members are only half converted, and the balance sometimes get discouraged trying to wholly convert them, but I must say, we have some red-hot knights in Montreal, and if you are there, you will see a good bunch of them in Detroit in August.

Wishing the "True Knight," and the brethren of Vancouver more power to carry on the good work, believe me,

Yours in F. C. and B.,

M. J. BAKER,

C. C., Damascus Lodge, No. 4.
