An appeal comes from the Foreign Mission Society for bed clothing for the Indians at Postage La Prairie, and clothing for the Indians of the Hill Reserve. Contributions of clothing for money to procure the same should be sent to St. Andrew's Church, King Street, City, on the 7th and 8th January.

Rev. ARCHIBALD BROWN has been inducted into Richmond Bay East, P. E. I. Mr. Brown is the sixth minister settled in that congregation, his predecessors being Rev. Messrs. Andrew Nichol, Wm. McGregor, J. M. McLeod and Wm. R. Frame. The congregation has two good churches, free of debt, and are united and harmonious.

A REASONABLE HINT. For an astringent gargle cough there is no better remedy than Hagar's. For oral ulcers, which affect the throat, bronchial and lung diseases, it is essential to take and efficient for young or old.

Trived all the doctors in this locality for liver and kidney troubles (which I had for years) with no result. I tried Hagar's. It cured me.

Messrs. HAAS & Co., King Street, Toronto, in order to meet a long felt want, have prepared beautifully bound editions of the Hymnals of our Church. The specimens we have seen are triumphs of the bookbinder's art, and are in every respect satisfactory. Copies of this edition would form most elegant and useful gift books, especially suitable for the holiday season. Persons in quest of devotional should give these enterprising publishers a call.
