March Fur Sales.

There were many very decided advances at the March sales in London. vances at the March sales in London, a number of them being re-arkable on account of the fact that the articles were of the very hithest cost skins, for which values already ruled high, making present prices extreme and carrying the furs to a valuation that may be regarded as exclusive. Some of the manufacturers view the condition with measurable substitutes. condition with measurable misgivings, realizing that great care will be necessary in conducting the coming season business; but as the purcheses London were made by strong and of servative firms, we are confident the values will be maintained, and the values will be maintained, is consequently manufacturers grade furs may feel secure in bility of prices, and be relieve the thought of indiscriminate. tion on the part of the "adding crowd," whose attention will, of necessary sity, centre upon articles of much lower rank,—New York For Trade Review.
