

much to God about the one you seek to benefit, and then watch for the right occasion to say a word in season. Above all things, be kindly, and genial, and full of love and unselfish interest in those about you. Show every day what a bright, happy thing true religion is. In this way you will be sure to do good. You may have to wait, but by and by thy fruit will appear.

THE BLESSED HOPE.

"Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing"—2 Tim. iv. 8.

TIME is short. The seasons rapidly run round. Our place will soon know us no more. What, then, is our hope for the eternal future to which we are hastening?

Some have—

NO HOPE.

They make no profession of being religious. They mind earthly things. They turn away from the Gospel. How fearful is their state! They are on the border of Eternity—"without GOD, and without hope."

Others, again, have—

A FALSE HOPE.

Although they admit that they have not yet been born again of the Holy Spirit, they say, with easy confidence, that they "trust that all will turn out well in another world." Thus they say, "Peace, peace!" when there is no peace.

Others have—

A SURE HOPE!

Those who have made a covenant with GOD through the merits and blood of CHRIST are already saved. Their mansion is prepared. A crown is laid up for them. A welcome awaits them in their FATHER'S Home—Rev. G. W. Tuttle.
