at $2,700, to the Bruce family as their entire estate had been swallowed up.

E. B. SHAVER, dealer in shoes and clothing, Toronto, is reported to be in trouble again. The former firm, Shaver & Bell, failed in 1873 and 1875, Shaver continuing. He next effected a settlement at 40 per cent in 1879 with the help of a friend, and now for the fourth time is in need of indulgence. Mr. Shaver has been turning over from $15,000 to $20,000 a year but storekeeping is evidently not his forte.—Mrs. W. Kennedy, formerly Mrs. Dunlop, millinery, Toronto, has assigned in trust.—Jas. McCube, cattle dealer, Thorold, Ont., has assigned; claims should be filed before the 16th inst.—Robt. Bennett, hotelkeeper, Georgetown, Ont., has also assigned; cause, the Scott Act.—Jas. Gibbons, tailor, Cayuga, is also in difficulties and has assigned.

Mr. Edward McTavish, merchant of Lindsay, Ont., was arrested in this city last Monday on a capias for $3689.76 issued by Messrs. Green-shields, McCorkill & Co. (Mr. Ed. Guerin has retired from this firm) — at the instance of Mr. H. B. Picken, trustee of the estate of H. Melville & Co. In August, 1884, Mr. McTavish and another trader named McFarlane purchased the insolvent estate for $10,000. Since that date it is alleged that the two gentlemen have in turn disposed of it at a figure far less than its actual value, leaving the amount of $3,600 of the purchase price still unpaid. Mr. McTavish declares that the estate in question is not worth more than $6,000, and defends his conduct throughout. He states that he came to Montreal to effect a compromise with his creditors.

We regret to learn that Mr. Wm. Potter, of Tottenham, Simcoe County, Ont., general dealer, has been obliged to ask for some indulgence at the hands of his creditors. At a meeting of these held in Toronto on the 5th inst., it was decided to render him every reasonable assistance in curtailing his business, reducing his accounts, and realizing upon the assets as quickly as possible with the aid of the trustee, Mr. C. B. Armstrong of London, to whom he had assigned a few days before. Mr. Potter, who has carried on business for the last fourteen years with almost unvaried success, found himself recently carrying more sail than was consistent with safety, but, like many other men, found it more difficult to shorten than to spread. Besides his general store business he carried on a saw mill with shingle and lath machines, employing a number of hands; he also employed an agent travelling through the country buying up grain and produce of all kinds for shipment to Montreal or Toronto. He owns property in different places valued in all at $12,000 to $13,000. His total assets are estimated at $45,000, and the liabilities are about $24,000—in Montreal, Toronto and local—showing a large surplus. It is expected that he will be able to pay 100 cents in the dollar in a short time, and go on with his business, affected but little, if any, by his present suspension.
