

PARAGRAPHIC.

Fact Stranger than Fiction.

It is a fact that Alonzo Howe, of Tweed, had a fever sore that afflicted him for thirty-five years. Six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him, which he considers almost a miracle. It was but the natural result of the remedy restoring pure blood and perfect secretion.

In twenty-two years the production of coal in Great Britain has increased from 86,000,000 to 163,000,000 tons annually.

A Favorite Everywhere.

Wherever introduced Hagar's Yellow Oil finds friends. It is the old reliable household remedy for external and internal use in all aches, pains, lameness and soreness of the flesh. A. L. Geen, a prominent druggist of Belleville, says: "It is a great favorite here, and has a good sale."

In London rosebuds are to be the fashionable embroidery, and rosebud satin will be used for trimming. The Princess of Wales set the fashion.

A Double Benefit.

James Moore, a prominent resident of Leamington, writes that he cured himself of Dyspepsia of a year's duration by one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and two bottles cured his wife who had been for years a sufferer from the same disease. He conscientiously recommends it to all suffering from similar troubles.

The German papers reproach Queen Victoria with parsimony for her intention to attend the marriage of her grand-daughter, the Princess of Hesse, only privately.

Crushed by the Cars.

A little son of Joan Spinks, Toronto, had his foot crushed by a G. T. R. Express train some time ago. Two doctors attended him without benefit, amputation was proposed, but Hagar's Yellow Oil was tried, which gave prompt relief and effected a cure, even removing all stiffness of the joint.

Poisonous colouring matter has been detected in mustard sold in New York. The mustard is first adulterated with flour, and the colouring matter is added to retain the proper appearance.

All for Ages.

The aged, debilitated and infirm will find renewed vigor and strength by taking Burdock Blood Bitters. The young hastening to early decay will also find in this revitalizing tonic a remedy worth trying.

The Paris Figaro contends that statistics prove that eighteen out of every twenty-five pictures bought by Americans are of the French school, and that the money expended by Americans for the purchase of pictures in France during the last twenty years amounts to $40,000,000.

Dangerous Traps.

Neglected colds are the fatal traps that ensnare many a victim beyond possibility of rescue. Take a cold or cough in time and it is easily conquered by that safe and pleasant vegetable remedy, Hagar's pectoral Balsam. Asthma, Bronchitis and pulmonary complaints generally soon yield to its healing influence.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—A teaspoonful, in a tumbler of water, forms a mild aperient, and an anti-fever draught. A small teaspoonful in a wine glass of water is a palatable cooling, and purifying draught. This latter dose taken before dinner is often likely to give an invigorating tone to the system.
