Further Arrests-Terrible Ex citement—Brutality of the Constabulary---Trying to drive the people into rebellion whilst their leaders are imprisoned.

Dublin, Oct. 14.—The prisoners in Kilmainham Jail are only allowed one visitor each day, but they may choose the one whom they wish to see. Mr. Parnell elect. to-day to see a representative the Freeman's Journal, whose edied for has kindly furnished an account of the interview. Mr. Parnell's cell is a small secluded appartment, having no furniture beyond a medium sized table and a few plain chairs. There was a good fire in the room which was fairly heated. Mr. Parnellwas sitting at the table when the reporter entered. The table cloth had been removed and some fruit was on the table, and also four or five books. Having obtained from him the particulars regarding. the arrest, the reporter asked him if Mr. T. P. O'Connor, who had declared his readiness to return to Ireland at any moment, would be recalled. Mr. Parnell replied that his arrest would in no way interfere with Mr. O'Connor, who would remain in America until the completion of his mission. When asked if the arrest were likely to cripple the organization of the League, Mr. Parnell said "I do not think it will have any prejudicial effect upon the movement. I had been able before the arrest to make complete arrangements for having the test cases brought into court, and also for a proper organization in the country. I think everything connected with the movement is now in a most satisfactory condition.

Dublin, Oct. 15.-Dillon was arrested at 4 o'clock this afternoon on a charge of treasonable practices and lodged in Kilmain-

The officer who arrested Sexton asked if his removal would endanger his health. Sexton refused to make a statement regarding his health.

At a meeting of 3,000 persons in Belfast on Friday twenty Catholic priests were present. A general strike against rent was advocated as long as Parnell remains in prison. A similar meeting was held in Limerick. Arthur O'Connor has not yet been arrested. It is stated he left Ireland in a cutter.

London, Oct. 17.—Arthur O'Connor has arrived at Carliele. O'Connor and Healy will take charge of Land Leage interests in London. Large reinforcements of police and military are going to Limerick. The police authorities have issued orders to have the headquarters of the Land League in London and the offices of the various branches watched. It is stated that precautions relative to public buildings and volunteer armories in force some months ago will be renewed. At meetings to-day at Grong, Enniskillen and Kitteshen, it was resolved to pay no rent until Parnell was released. Andrew and Patrick Gallagher, secretaries of Ballybuttese and Killinane leagues, have been arrested on suspicion of shooting at Cartin, Maryborough, when six persons were wounded.

LIMERICK, Oct. 16.—Posted proclamations prohibiting a meeting here were torn down before daybreak this morning. Col. Knox of the Scots Guards, told the Mayor that any assemblage would be forcibly suppressed. Crowds nevertheless assembled in Bank Place outside the town, where the military and police forestalled them. The attempt to meet was a fiasco, but individuals in the crowd jeeringly shouted military commands. As the troops were moving away stones were thrown and the troops charged the mob. The latter closed with the soldiers, who were ordered to load. The soldiers charged several times, but subsequently entered the barracks. The Scots Greys and police afterwards charged the mob down George street, causing it to flee in all directions. The police in Denmark street fired upon the mob. Several persons were wounded. Twenty arrests were made. Numerous houses were wrecked. After the riot, the club house was attacked, windows smashed and street lamps extinguished. A man named Casey, wounded by a bullet during the riot, is dying.

London, Oct. 16 .- A riot occurred at Mallow in consequence of an unsuccessful attempt to rescue John Heffernan, who was being conveyed to Limerick jail. The police were stoned and the head constable seriously

The World's London special says :- Biggar will probably take Dilion's place, but will not be allowed at large long. It is stated that over filty warrants have been issued for leagures, and the drag net will be cast in Cork, Limerick, Castlebar, Wexford, Water-ford, Nenagh, Clonmel, Sligo, Galway and elsewhere on Monday. Paris, Oct. 16 .- In an interview Egan stated that the tide of revolution was rising high in Ireland, where there was a discipmerciless revolt of hungry men against the bloated rich. The prolonged incarceration of Parnell might produce a general insurrection. The Land, League is prepared for every sacrifice, and ready to die to he last man. MANCHESTER, Oct. 15 .- Edinburgh, Clonmel and Clerkenwell leagues have passed resolutions denouncing Parnell's arrest. Robert Leake, Liberal M.P. for Lancashire, speaking at Dutton, said Parnell proved himself an avowed rebel.

Dublin, Oct. 15 .- After the arrest of Parnell a man with a bugle paraded the streets. warning the people to close their shops. A number refused, but eventually closed, owing to intimidation by a crowd of 2,000. Healy, on hearing of Parnell's arrest, started from London for Dublin. A messenger, sent by friends, intercepted him at Holyhead and urged him to return to London. As Quinn has never spoken publicly it reasonably suspected of treasonable pracis assumed the Government discovered something in his letters which it is said the Government always open. The Lord Mayor elect presided at an indignation meeting in the Rotunda last night. Twenty

The people obey the League proclamations nobly well, and will not be rushed into

Cork, Oct. 15.—John Heffernan, of the Cork Branch of the Land League, has been rearrested and conveyed to Limerick gaol. It is stated that other warrants are in the nands of the police against prominent members of the Cork League. A Dublin despatch says the arrest of Dillon causes a most intense feeling. An immense crowd had assembled in Sackville street, opposite the Imperial Hotel, where members of the Land League are in the habit of staying, expecting that Biggar would make a speech. Atterresisting the attempt of the police to disperse them, they followed Biggar to the office of the League. This morning a further warrant was served on Parnell, charging him with being reasonably suspected of having, since September 30, been guilty of treasonable practices, as principal. O'Brien was arrested while walking along Sackville street. Instructions have been telegraphed to every military station in Ireland enjoining vigilance, and flying columns are held in readiness for immediate movement. The number of troops now in Dublin is 5,000. Every sentry is provided with twenty rounds of

New York, Oct. 16.—The Herald's special says :- The free use of British bayonets for three days has temporarily scattered and demoralized the Land League. The chiefs of the League are all in gaol, or their arrests are momentarily expected to-night. Sackville and Grafton streets were crowded with people cheering, hooting, yelling and whistling. The military are under arms at the barracks, and mounted police are patrolling everywhere. The ordinary force of foot and police has been doubled. O'Kelly was arrested in his bedroom early on Saturday morning. He prepared for departure with the utmost deliberation, occupying an hour and a quarter. The crowd cheered him as he entered the cab. The police refused to allow O'Brien to visit his mother, who is in feeble health and much distressed. When the detectives called on Dillon, he immediately entered a cab. Twenty mounted police, who had been standing in a line a few yards distant, followed all the way to the gaol. While detectives were looking for Arthur O'Connor he was visiting Parnell, by whose request he slipped away at night in a Liverpool coal boot. No further arrests were made last night, as it would have been dangerous. Large mobs are surrounding all the haunts of the remaining members of the League. The chief clerks of the League are gone to Holyhead or Paris. Most of the books and papers of the League have been removed to England. An office will be opened in Holyhead. The central office here is completely broken up. All connection with local Leagues is practically suspended. The League Executive decided on Friday night on a general strike against the payment of any rent whatever. Dillon, Biggar and O'Kelly voted against the measure, but it was carried by a majority. Sexton was leader of the section of the League which decided on using this final arrow in the quiver. It is an important phase of the arrests that all of the later ones were made on warrants charging treason. Parnell himself was served with a warrant for treason.

It is believed a certain member of the League, now in Kilmainham, has divulged all the workings of the organization. It is on this information that treasonable practices are charged. The informer is the person previously suspected of peculating League funds. Parnell was investigating the matter when arrested. Dillon stated on Friday that if the League is broken up and their cause a failure he would go to the United States and try to unite all the national Irish societies under the banner of physical force. Parnell said on Saturday morning that he was never better in his life than during the short period of his imprisonment. Boyton has given up his room, which is the most comfortable in the prison, to Parnell. Parnell says the proclamaion against boycotting is merely an attempt to intimidate the Irish people. - The Government were evidently striking at the Executive office of the League, but by arresting the heads of departments they were rendering impossible the carrying out of the rules passed by the National Convention regarding the Land Act which are the wishes of the nation. He was afraid. therefore, that the test cases which he intended to bring before the court could not be proce ded with, except in a few cases which were complete. Parnell expected the arrival of several colleagues who were then at large. He spoke confidently of the arrival of Dillon He had slready seen O'Kelly in jail. He understood that O'Kelly refused to allow himself to be searched, and that the authorities used force in order to carry out prison rules. In an interview all reference to politics is forbidden by the prison authorities.

Sexton was arrested on a charge of being suspected of treasonable practices and inciting people not to pay rent. Quinn was charged with the latter offence.

Parnell at the conclusion of his interview vesterday said :—" I shall take it as evidence that the people of the country did not do their duty if I am speedily released."

Dublin, Oct. 17.—The police are accused of wanton conduct. The proprietor of the Imperial Hotel, while standing in the doorway, was knocked down by an officer. Mr. O'Donnell, M. P., had his eye-glass smashed on his face by a policeman though doing nothing whatever. Twenty or thirty persons are reported to have been injured on Saturday night.

DUBLIN, Oct. 17. The Corporation to-day adjourned to seek an interview with Forster, Chief Secretary, in accordance with a resolution, to endeavour to obtain assurance that the estentations display of police force, which took place on Saturday and Sunday with such lamentable consequences, shall not be repeated.

Abraham, Treasurer of the Limerick Land League, has been arrested, the charge being tices. Special policemen, who assisted in dis-persing the crowds on Saturday and Sunday nights, were wild with liquor. Well-known citizens, newspaper, reporters, telegraph mes-sengers, and even women, suffered from the League claim that Arthur O'Connor having been recently thoroughly instructed in the management of the whole affairs of the League, his escape will enable the organization to continue.

Next Sunday's meeting at Hyde Park where the attendance of Healy is probable, is expected to be the largest and most excited demonstration of any Irish gathering. Orders have been received at Devenport for the first battalion of the 13th to be ready to proceed to Ireland. The Times says Forster's resolute and unflinching reply to the deputafion must dispel all hopes that the policy of the Government can be defeated by a manipulation of constitutional common places and by appeals to shadowy sentiment.

CORE, Oct. 17 .- It is stated that James Power, Secretary of the Middleton Branch of the Land League, and another prominent member of the League, have been arrested. Lennon, Secretary of the Carlow and County Branch of the League, and O'Toole, a member of the League, have been arrested and taken to Nass on a charge of boycotting. Biggar left Dublin last evening for Holyhead He fully expected to be arrested, but resolved to no longer await the action of the authorities. It is believed his destination is Liverpool It is where the Local League has placed its premises at the disposal of the Central Executive. He may first go to London to confer with Healy. It is stated that the London authorities contemplate arrests in Belfast and other parts of the North of Ireland. Lynam, the organizer of King's and Queen's Counties and Westmeath Leagues, White, Secretary of the Clare League, and Egan, Secretary of the Tullamore League, have been lodged in Naas gaol. 23 persons are in Limerick Hospital with bayonet wounds. A magistrate stated from the Bench to-day that the police had strict orders never in future to fire blank cartridge, but to fire with effect. The Irish Times accuses the police of the fiercest excesses in dispersing the crowd on Saturday.

Mr. Cowen, M.P., Newcastle, is almost the solitary outspoken champion, so far, of Ireland in the English papers. He admits the uselessness and danger of reasoning with men in a passion. Since Thursday, he says, the leading articles of the English newspapers have been one continued shout of exultation over the latest exercise of Constitutional power by the present Cabinet. If the cruel scenes are continued, Mr. Cowen thinks even Englishmen will finally be compelled, by public opinion abroad, to fee ashamed of the despotism which is being ex ercised to its fullest in Ireland.

London, Oct. 18.—It is understood that Sexton has declined the offer of the Government to release him on account of ill health. provided he leaves the country. It is not considered probable the members of Parlia ment in Kilmainham jail will be detained be youd three months.

DUBLIN, Oct. 18.—The Land League meets here to-day and will probably issue a manifesto. E. Dwyer Gray states he trusts the people will show that forbearance which the police lack. At a meeting of the Corporation Council Gray said he believed the police were acting under the orders of the Government for the purpose of provoking a collision to give an opportunity of shedding blood

VIOLENT STORM IN DUBLIN.

DUBLIN, Oct. 14 .- A terrific storm divides attention with the Government's activity Immense damage has been done here by the hurricane. Dozens of houses and hundreds of trees have been blown down and several people were killed. The roof of the Gaiety Theatre, where Mr. Irving and Miss Ellen Terry were acting, was partially raised. All telegraphic communication with London is completely suspended.

TOURIST'S OPINION!

'Twas just a week ago, a friend
Came here his holidays to spend,
Leaving his business in the West,
Determined here some time to rest.
Our friend was of the joily type—
Could play at whist, and smoke a pipe—
One of the best of men e'er seen,
Such men are few and far between.
Our friend had wealth—refinement too—
Was gen'rous to a fault, and true;
and in commercial matters great,
Wielded much influence and weight.
Our friend laid out his plans with care,
To view our city large and fair;
Made up his mind no time to lose.
And only points of interest choose.
The Mountain Park, with all its drives,
Then to the summit he arrives;
And views a sight so lovely, grand, Then to the summit he arrives;
And views a sight so lovely, grand,
Not often seen in any land.
With panoramic heautles fed,
Visits the city of the dead;
Admiring every heauty there,
Wond'ring if Eden was more fair.
Our Churches, Palaces and Halls,
Convents, with high and massive walls;
Our Port and Shipping, all are seen,—
He's not contented yet, I ween.
Our friend had often heard of one
Who for the city good had done;
And as a business man he'd go
To see S. Caraley's wond'rous show! And as a dusiness man ne'd go 10 see S. Carsley's wond'rous show!
He said 'mong all the sights and views,
No better can a trav'ler choose,
Than looking through S. Carsley's Store;
Once seen, forgotten nevermore.
"OUR POET."
