

THE PRESIDENT ELECT AND THE CRISIS.—Our late cheering advices from Washington, indicating the reasonable co-operation of the President elect in compromise arrangements in behalf of the Union and the peace of the country, were too good, it appears to be true, with the receipt of these advices at Springfield, the republican newspaper there, accredited as the home organ of Mr. Lincoln, indignantly denies the soft impeachment as to his conservative inclinations. We are thus told that "in Abraham Lincoln the country will have a republican President, one who will give them a republican administration, and that instead of being committed to the border State compromise or any other, "Mr. Lincoln stands immovably on the Chicago platform, and will neither acquiesce in, nor advise his friends to acquiesce in, any compromise that surrenders one iota of it." In confirmation of this unwelcome intelligence, our Springfield correspondent, in the same emphatic tone, assures us that Mr. Lincoln will adhere to the doctrine of the restriction of slavery upon which he was elected, "until he becomes convinced of its fallacy not by threats, treason and rebellion, but by his own sense of justice;" and that "he will hold himself altogether aloof from attempts to intermeddle with the strife of Congressional factions and the troubles of the present administration, until he shall have assumed the reins of government."

BOSTON CHURCHES.—There are 112 churches in the city of Boston, calculated to seat 90,032 persons, and which cost $4,905,853. This does not include the Spiritualists, who hold occasional services on the Sabbath, the Pantheists, or the believers in the doctrine of Thomas Paine, and promulgated by Horace Seaver, and one or two other bodies meeting in halls, but having no regular church organization.

ISSUES THAT CANNOT BE AVOIDED BY SECESSION.—Gov. FLOYD UNDER ARREST.—The Grand Jury of the District of Columbia has earned the thanks of all honest and patriotic men by indicting ex-Secretary Floyd on the charges of malfeasance in office and conspiracy against the general government, which have been so openly preferred against him by the press.

The authorities of Florida have taken the boldest step yet, in arresting an officer of the United States Navy.—Lieut. James Jewett, a native of Kentucky, who was arrested when it became known that he was about leaving Florida, and forced to sign a parole of honor that he would not take up arms against the State of Florida, in order to effect his release from imprisonment. Without this document, he could not have passed through the State. The Navy Department have possession of all the facts connected with this outrage.

The branch mint and custom house at New Orleans were seized by the State authorities on last Saturday.
