T. JAMES CLAXTON & CO.,ST. JOSEPH ST., MONTREAL.*Mercantile Summary.WRITS in insolvency have been issued against A. D. Cable, patent broker; Perrault & Panneton, dry goods; Thos. Overing, wire worker, of Montreal; and against Geo. Bowles, trader, Upton, Que.; and Michael Lynch, general store, Windsor Mills.THIS is how many of the economical Blue-noses propose to visit the Centennial Exhibition.
A Captain Gilmore is engaged in fitting out a schooner at Wolfville N. S. to carry passengers and board them on the voyage and in port at $8.00 per week. The trip will take several weeks. The passengers will have a good opportunity to recuperate their physical condition and the whole expense will be but $56.00.THE leather house of Messrs. A. & E. Amos, in Montreal, which has for some time past been struggling to continue business, has been put into bankruptcy, and their affairs placed in charge of an assignee. The compromise which they some time since effected is yet incomplete, and their estate is in an unpromising shape, while the health of the resident partner is not such as to induce any hope that they can go on again successfully.AN old resident and merchant of the city or St. Hyacinthe, Que., Mr. Remi Raymond, has recently had reason to learn the folly of loading himself with real estate whilst in active business as a storekeeper. He was long in good credit, reputed well-to-do, but had gradually become slow in his payments and unsatisfactory to creditors, till at last their patience was exhausted, and he was served the other day with a writ of attachment. His estate, owing to the shrinkage in value of land in and about the town, will show but poorly in comparison with the fancy estimates which were made of his assets formerly.
