

(ii) List No. 2 shall consist of all substances (1) believed to be present within the water, sediment or aquatic biota of the Great Lakes System and (2) believed, singly, or in synergistic or additive combination with another substance to have the potential to cause acute or chronic toxic effects on aquatic, animal or human life.

(iii) List No. 3 shall consist of all substances (1) believed to have the potential of being discharged into the Great Lakes System and (2) believed, singly or in synergistic or additive combination with another substance, to have acute or chronic toxic effects on aquatic, animal or human life.

In compiling such lists, the Parties shall employ all data available, including that resulting from activities undertaken pursuant to Annex 12.

(d) Determinations regarding whether a substance, singly or in synergistic or additive combination with another substance, has actual or potential acute or chronic effects or whether a substance has the potential of being discharged into the Great Lakes System according to paragraph (c) above, shall be made using standard methods agreed to by the Parties in consultation with State and Provincial Governments by April 1988.

3. Lake Ecosystem Objectives. Consistent with the purpose of this Agreement to maintain the chemical, physical and biological integrity of the waters of the Great Lakes Basin Ecosystem, the Parties, in consultation with State and Provincial Governments, agree to develop the following ecosystem objectives for the boundary waters of the Great Lakes System, or portions thereof, and for Lake Michigan:

(a) Lake Superior

“The Lake should be maintained as a balanced and stable oligotrophic ecosystem with lake trout as the top aquatic predator of a cold-water community and the pontoporeia hoyi as a key organism in the food chain; and

(b) Other Great Lakes

“Ecosystem Objectives shall be developed as the state of knowledge permits for the rest of the Boundary Waters of the Great Lakes System, or portions thereof, and for Lake Michigan.” ”

ARTICLE VIII

Annex 2 of the Agreement is amended by deleting the existing Annex entitled “Limited Use Zones” and replacing it with a new Annex 2 entitled “Remedial Action Plans and Lakewide Management Plans” as follows:
