

2. To encourage exchanges of TV and radio workers for the purpose of preparing programmes and films for TV and of discussing questions of cooperation and broadcasting international sports competitions. The terms and the duration of these exchanges will be negotiated by the respective Canadian and Soviet organizations.

VIII SPORT

Both sides agreed:

1. To facilitate the further development of exchanges in sport on the basis of the "Memorandum of Understanding on Principles of Cooperation in Sport Between Canada and the USSR" of January 1, 1979, between the Ministry of State for Fitness and Amateur Sport of Canada and the State Committee on Physical Culture and Sport under the Council of Ministers of the USSR and on the basis of further negotiations between the above-mentioned organizations.

IX TOURISM

Both sides will encourage the development of tourist relations between the two countries and render every possible assistance to tourists in their tours for familiarization with the way of life, professional and cultural interests of the peoples of both countries.

X EXCHANGES IN OTHER FIELDS

Both sides agreed:

1. To encourage cooperation between chartered associations, professional organizations and institutions of the two countries;
