

in the pre-qualification stage of a project. KIC can help coordinate the process with regard to Government requirements. It is recommended that foreign firms always deal through a local agent when dealing with the Government, especially if a joint-venture is involved.

The Company has launched the Al-Nile Fund which aims at investing in the Egyptian stock market for an amount of US$ 26,4 million.

Leopold Battel
January 1999