

2. Each Contracting Party shall allow the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party to determine the frequency and capacity of the agreed services they offer based on the designated airlines' commercial considerations in the marketplace. Therefore, a Contracting Party shall not impose on the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party any requirement with respect to capacity, frequency or traffic that would be inconsistent with the purposes of this Agreement. A Contracting Party shall not unilaterally limit the volume of traffic, frequency or regularity of service, or of the aircraft type or types operated by the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party, except as may be required for customs and other government inspection services, technical, or operational reasons under uniform conditions consistent with Article 15 of the Convention.

3. Each Contracting Parties, through its aeronautical authorities, may require, for information purposes, the filing of schedules or timetables not later than ten (10) days, or any lesser period as those authorities may require, prior to the operation of new or revised services. If the filings are for information purposes, each Contracting Party, through its aeronautical authorities, shall minimize the administrative burden of filing requirements and procedures on the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party.

ARTICLE 15

Airline Representatives

1. Each Contracting Party shall permit that:
 - (a) the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party, on the basis of reciprocity, bring into and maintain in its territory their representatives and commercial, operational and technical staff, as required, in connection with the operation of the agreed services; and
 - (b) these staff requirements at the option of the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party, be satisfied by their own personnel or, by using the services of any other organization, company or airline operating in its territory and authorized to perform such services for other airlines.
2. Each Contracting Party shall:
 - (a) with the minimum of delay and consistent with its laws and regulations, process requests pertaining to the necessary employment authorizations, visitor visas or other similar documents to the representatives and staff referred to in paragraph 1; and
 - (b) facilitate and expedite the requirement of employment authorizations for personnel performing certain temporary duties not exceeding ninety (90) days.
