

Post Office

the postal department but upon the fact that as long as this situation continues the people of Canada will more and more wonder about the whole system. In that respect the postal problem is very important, and it is a situation that the President of the Treasury Board seems incapable of settling.

[Translation]

Mr. Speaker: Pursuant to the provisions of Standing Order 26(13), I am satisfied that the debate is concluded and I therefore declare the motion carried.

[English]

Pursuant to the special order adopted earlier this day, this House stands adjourned until two o'clock p.m. on Monday, October 5, 1970. Before I leave the chair I should like to invite hon. members to spend the next few minutes in room 16.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

The House adjourned at 7.17 p.m. until Monday, October 5 at two o'clock p.m., pursuant to special order.
