

BV
4241
P85

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.

THE Publishers having been repeatedly solicited to issue a Collection of Sermons by DR. PUNSHON, have deemed the occasion of his departure from Canada—the field of his recent successful labors—an appropriate one for complying with this urgent request.

Sincerely regretted by hosts of admiring friends, that earnest and eloquent preacher of Divine truth has departed from our midst, perhaps never to return. The Publishers beg leave, therefore, to offer the present collection of his Sermons (which is the only extensive collection ever published), carefully collated and revised, with the hope that it may serve as a MEMORIAL VOLUME of our departed friend. To make it more acceptable to all denominations, and to afford an opportunity for a comparison of the relative merits of our greatest living preachers, late and select sermons of Beecher and Spurgeon have been added; and to the thousands of admirers in Canada of these three great pulpit orators, the publishers beg leave most respectfully to dedicate the work, with the hope that it may carry to its readers the richest blessings imaginable.

TORONTO, JULY, 1873.