

CHAPTER XV. p. 39.

Extraordinary Disruption of Ice in Quilliam Creek.
Some appearance of Scurvy among the Seamen and Marines.

Account of a Journey with Sledges to Cockburn Island.

Discovery of Gifford River.

Commence cutting the Ice outside the Ships, to release them from their Winter-quarters.

Considerations respecting the Return of the Expedition to England.

Unfavourable state of the Ice at the eastern entrance of the Strait.

Proceed to the Southward.

Ships beset and drifted up Lyon Inlet.

Decease of Mr. George Fife.

Final Release from the Ice, and Arrival in England.

Remarks upon the practicability of a North-West Passage.
