

posed People as we have been speaking of, or to any of the Missionaries sent by the Society, or to those who have called themselves Christians, though they have hitherto lived without Fear of what must come hereafter :—In a Word,—if it may serve in the least Degree to enlarge the Kingdom of God, which we daily pray for:—Let all the Praise be to Him, for whose Glory it was undertaken, and who by the weakest Means can, when he pleases, do the greatest Good.

All the Author desires for himself is,—That he may have the Prayers of all such as shall receive any Benefit by these Papers; and in return he will not forget to pray for them That we may one Day meet in the Paradise of God, to praise Him to all Eternity.

INST

W

W

Missi

t is the

Misery,

and here

Ind.

be to

cerns

Miss.

Heart's

ame Kn