

The Governor-General:—The Canada-U.S. Border line of 3,000 miles with NOT A SOLDIER, nor a FORT, NOR A GUN, has no parallel in history, and is an object LESSON TO THE WORLD.

Those diamond-ringed, jewel-bedecked, HEART-LESS PROFITEERS are the real menace to Canada. —T. J. Murray.

HE OR SHE who does not contribute to another's GOOD should apologize for continuing to live. —Dr. Herridge, Ottawa.

We are living in REST-LESS DAYS, days with big issues, FRAUGHT WITH GRAVE PERILS. —Halifax Herald.

THE CHURCH has occupied too much time preparing people for the next world and not enough with present-day conditions. Rev. Lewis, Regina.

WHAT WE WANT in Canada IS A NEW BIRTH OF DEVOTION to the nation. —Sir J. Willison, Toronto.

We can best cherish THEIR UNDYING FAME by making the Homeland a better place in which to live.

EVANGELIST STEMPLE WHITE:
"TO BE A MAN, not a Super-man, but just an honest, industrious, courageous, clean, gentle man, as true to principle as the needle to the pole, yet charitable, liberty loving, and with largeness of heart, —this, after all IS THE HIGHEST IDEAL."

With PARASITES on one side, and PIRATES on the other, THE HOPE OF CANADA lies in a combination of industry, capital, etc. Gov. Aikins.

In the new social order INDUSTRY will be democratized, and combination will recede before the march of CO-OPERATION. —Dr. S. G. Bland.

THE SOCIAL CONSCIENCE demands that EVERY TOILER should have a living wage and EVERY CHILD decent surroundings. Dr. Gundler, Toronto.

TWO THINGS are pretty well established in this country: First, a man must do a day's work; second, he must be paid for a day's work. —Pen-Dennis.

The glory of the skies, and the tender loneliness of the prairies and the hills still belong to the Maker, untouched by commercialism.

THE EXAMPLE of two great peoples living side by side IN PEACE, in CONFIDENCE, and in MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING is about the finest contribution that any two nations could give to the world.—President Harding.
