BLACK HAND MURDER CUNNINGLY PLANNED

Got Victim Drunk and Laid Handkerchiefs to Mark Spot to Aim At From Opposite Window.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The shotgun NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The shotgun came into play again to-day as the deadly weapon of supposed "Blackhanders" in one of their most frequented haunts on the east side.

The murder was attended by decidedly unusual circumstances. The victim, Frank Busso, a Sicilian, was shot dead while he was lying on his face on a table under a small shed in a yard in the rear of an East Sixty-Third-street tenement. Two white handkerchiefs lay on his body, one above and one below the wound, Manitoba — Showery: local thunderstorms.

Political Workers From Montreal Tell of Quebec Landslide.

Several Montreal political workers arrived in Toronto last night for the purpose of conferring with local workers. They are, Bernard Rose, Isaac Lande, president of the St. Lawrence division Conservative Association and Harry Bloomfield, another Conservative worker.

Mr. Lande will speak at a meeting in the Lyric Theatre to-night and it is likely that Mr. Bloomfield will also speak there. Mr. Rose says that the prospects in the St. Lawrence division are excellent for the Conservative candidate, G. F. Johnson. Thousands of old-time Liberals have turned against the Liberal party in Montreal, says Mr. Rose. The marine question is a factor in the turn-over.

REV. DR. HINCKS STILL HAMMERING NE TEMERI

Asks United Action in Urging Upon Federal and Provincial Governments injustice of Decree.

At Broadway Tabernacle at both the morning and evening services yesterday Rev. Dr. W. H. Hincks continued to voice his protests against the Ne Temere decree. His morning sermon was ot a his-torical nature, in which he dwelt on the purpose and the results of the council of Trent, which mot in 1543, and passed the Ne Temere decree. He showed that this famous gathering was "a packed synod of Italians," the Teutonic nations which had demanded reform had only five members present.

Womanhood Not Considered.
In his evening zermon Dr. Hincks continued his arguments against the Ne Temera decree, illustrating them by pertinent examples of the trouble and inconsistency which the decree had wrought in Canada. To-day the Domin ion's greatest duty was unification, but unification depended upon a unified home. The history of Catholicism showed that the importance of womanhood had always been minimized, and during the period in which the church had temporal power in Italy there was not a single school for girls in Rome.

Protestantism, he believed, had falled to see, much less to confront, the danger.

"Easy going toleration has lasted long enough. Some of us acknowledge no danger from Rome till it thunders at the door, and now we have it turning. That opens the following week of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I understand there is several hundred dollars to be awarded of the hinge, as I had the dollars to be awarded for the properties of the following week in the London tourney before the hinge is the following week in the london to

Samuel McCracken Was Found Dying in Room by Landlady.

Samuel McCracken, who boarded at 297 West Queen-street, drank a quantity of wood alcohol last evening while his landlady was at church. On her return she heard groanings upstairs; and rushing to McCracken's room found him lying on the floor and apparently in great agony. A doctor was summoned and the stomach pump ap-plied, but the only hope of saving the man's life was by rushing him to the hospital. A hurry call was sent and McCracken was removed to St. Michafterwards.

McCracken was a man of about 40 took the alcohol in mistake is not known. An inquest will be opened to-day at the morgue.
