THE INTERRUPTIONS WERE MANY

Someone Caused the Fire Alarm Bells to be Sounded,

The Sounded,

The Mope of Creating Confusion, but Mr. McIntyre Informed the Meeting that it was a Trick—The Premier Meld to the Short City Can and a chorus in unison of "Grease, grease," was heard.

Chairman Swift told Mr. Simmons to sit down or go out. Finally the e.ector at down. Sir Charles said that it might be that the disturbers would go a little too far. He concluded by referring briefly to the Manitoba school question, charged that the excitement and heat were due to Liberal machinations, that the Greenway Government had brought it up to strengthen its hands. "Thank God." he concluded, "that the independent intelligence of Canadian electors will not stand this desperate effort to trample under foot constitutional rights, that the action of such persons will receive such a condemnation as will prevent any repetition in the future and prevent any party from endeavoring to struggle into power by such unholy means."

The gathering broke up with cheers for the Queen, McIntyre, Tupper and Laurier.

SIR CHARLES AT BROCKVILLE.

of the Day Before a Big

Kingston, June 2.—Very noisy was the gathering in the City Hall to night addressed by Sir Charles Tupper and D. McIntyre. The Premier arrived are the reception at the station and as at rick of the City Hall to night addressed by Sir Charles Tupper and D. McIntyre. The Premier arrived here this atternon at 7.30 c'clock from Brockville, and after the reception at the station and as at once descripted to the personal properties of the station and as at once descripted to the city Hall to night with the transport of the reception at the station and as at once descripted to the city Hall to night with the transport of the reception at the station and as at once descripted to the city Hall to night with the transport of the resolution of the Man and the restoration of the Conservative candidate, made the opening address, occupying an hour in reviewing the Manitod chairman, and at once introduced Sir Charles Tupper, who spoke and hour in reviewing the Manitod school question, and giving his reasons for maintaining and supported to the constitution and the restoration of rights ruthlessly taken away from the Carholic minority in Manitoda. He called upon Liberal-Conservative principle of the constitution and the restoration of rights ruthlessly taken away from the Carholic minority in Manitoda. He called upon Liberal-Conservative principle and policy. If the party was united victory was assured.

During Mr. McIntyre's address the fire altern range. Mr. McIntyre's address the plant of the constitution, and selection many and saked at the conservatives of sir Charles at Mersickulle, and the constitution, and the center of the constitution, and the constitution and the restoration of rights ruthlessly taken away from the constitution and the restoration of rights ruthlessly taken away from the constitution and the restoration of rights ruthlessly taken away from the constitution and the constitution and the restoration of the constitution and the restoration of rights ruthlessly taken away from the constitution and the con

Bleckling Sir Charles.

Sir Charles at Merrickville. Merrickville, June 9.—Sir Charles Tupper addressed a large gathering of electors here to-day. He explained the Government policy thoroughly, but it was hard to determine how the meeting stood, as the assembly was compared out, "It will be worse on the special classes. The weather was bad.

declared the Liberals had no policy.

Disturbance Again.

Again the disturbance began, while Mr. Simmons Chandler declared the Liberals' policy was to have shonest government. Then Sir Charles retorted that the Liberals had one policy, in fact a policy in each province, and all with the same end in view, "How to get into power." The cheers and live the same end in view, "How to get into power." The cheers and lever the sarriage drawn by four horseback, representing the yeomanry of Elms, followed by 50 young men on horseback, representing the yeomanry of Elms, followed and Harriston bands. Ridicule-" Behold Him !" He Says. Winnipeg, Man., June 9.—(Special.)-Hugh Sutherland and Joseph Martin last night came together for the first time in the campaign and paid their kindest respects to each other to the intense edification of a Portage la Prairie audience. Among other choice things Mr. Sutherland said of Mr. Martin were these: "Under the cover and cloak of Parliament; he makes slanderous and outrageous statements and accusations when he knows he is protected. This is the first time I have met him on a public platform, and he would not be here now had he known I was to be on hand. Look at him, ladies and gentlemen-behold him! He is known among his friends as 'Fighting Joe,' but never was a man more wrongly named. There is not a particle of fight in him. He is a big bully-a coward. Why, I pulled his nose on the floor of the Russell House at Ottawa, and he did not have enough manhood in him to resent it. Martin, you have been abusing me in Parliament, where it was beyond my power to reach you, but now we both are on the hustings, and I propose to deal with you according to your merits." Mr. Martin retorted to au this as best he could, but is not Sutherland's match in galling invectives. It was the liveliest meeting of the campaign

The Daily News will say that a zollverein would immensely advance the roogress and stability of the Empire. It adds that the real question is what amount of compromise with the principle of free trade would the colonies require, and the Mother Country admits the price of the advantages to be received by her.

The Chronicle opposes a zollverein and accuses Mr. Chamberlain of dailying with protection. Nothing, it adds, would justify Great Britain in altering her free trade policy.
