THE REVIEW.

Yesterday's review was quite smail, compared with similar events in Europe, but still it was large enough to be impossive. Originally designed to give the future King an idea of Canada's imilitary system, it ended by proving a gnost value able object lesson fur the people of Canada themselves. The 30,000 spectators who witnessed the review were ampressed with the solider-like bearing of the Canadan militar, with their numbers, and especially with the fact, as emphasized by the presence of the Duke of York, that they are part and parcel of a great imperial organization. The Duke of York, that they are part and parcel of a great imperial organization. The Duke of York, that they are part and parcel of a great imperial organization. Yet the farmer who understands that he can't have a healthy corn crop without feeding and weeding, seems to think that he can have a healthy body without either care or culture. But the body is built up just as the corn is, by the assimilation of the several chemical elements on which vitality depends. And what weeds are to the corn, diseases of the stomach and nutritive systems are to the body; they divert the necessary food supply from the proper channels, and the body becomes lean, sickly and ill-nourished.

SULTAN ALONE RESPONSIBLE.

Londom, Oct. 11.—After detailing the history of the abduction of Miss Stone. The Spectator remarks: "President Rooseveit and the Washington cabinet maintain justify that the Sultan is responsible, as it is his government which provokes and protests against-brigandage; and they intend to demand reparation from the Porte. It will not be limited, we imagine, to £2006. The Porte will be requested to punish the authors of the outrage; and, as Turkey is sure to shuffle, and America is tirred of being played with, a naval deponstration is quite on the cards. The Sultan will, of course, yield to the first show of force."
