At the Knights of Pythias Hall last evening Dr. Austin, late principal of Alma College, delivered a lecture on 'Infallible Proofs of Spirit." It was the doctor's first appearance before a London audience since his expulsion from the Methodist Church, and the hall was well filled. The speaker held that the possibility of spirit return was proven beyond a doubt. The Christian Church was built upon just that possibility. If it could not be proven that Jesus arose from the dead, historical Christianity had not a foot to stand on. To deny the possibility of spirit return and identification would be to destroy the very foundation of the speaker said that the evidences in favor of the actual return and identification of the so-called dead today surpassed in a variety of respects the historical evidence of the resurrection of Christ. There were a million witnesses in the United States and Canada, who had identified in spirit manifestations friends they knew in the flesh. Among these witnesses and others in the old land were a host of scientists, divines, authors, etc., some of whom had spent a quarter of a cen-Austin referred specifically to the works of Sir William Crookes, F.R.S., Zollner, Prof. Ware, George Edmonds and Dr. George Saxton. The speaker considered that the ethical system taught in spirit communications had New York last week, at which Admiral never been surpassed in either the lofty character of the duties it proclaimed or the power and variety of the motives it urged to secure obedience a religion that can demonstrate the spirituality of man's nature and the spiritual basis of the universe," he said, "and thus kill the materialism of this age." Dr. Austin went west this afternoon. He has engagements to lecture in Chicago and other western cities. To the reporter he said that he was en-gaged for the present year, and would spend most of his time writing and lecturing. There was some talk of an independent church being started in Toronto, of which he would take charge, but that would not be until next year. It would be something in the nature of Congregational church, he said. He does not expect to return to Ontario until fall.

London, June 9 .- Both the House of Lords and the House of Commons passed votes of thanks to Gen. Lord Kitchener of Khartoum and the other officers and men engaged in the Soudan campaign. Mr. Michael Davitt protested and challenged a division, with the result that there were 321 votes in favor of the motion and 20 against it. Mr. A. J. Balfour, the government leader, remarked that Mr. Davitt attended the house as "an avowed enemy of our country," adding that he under-

THE TRANSVAAL TROUBLE.

London, June 9. - The Daily Mail says that it learns that it was President Kruger himself who suggested the conference; and it claims to have reliable authority for saying that Sir Alfred Milner, the British high commissioner, has his back to the wall, and is supported to the utmost by the cabinet.

Commenting editorially on the situation, the Daily Mall says: "If we know our Kruger aright, he will back down, and if not, why

The Daily Chronicle does not deny the gravity of the situation, and seriously counsels the Boers to grant reasonable reforms as the only means of preserving their independence against the plots of the stock exchange and the violence of Downing street.

The Standard, which reminds the Transvaal that its independence is not absolute, but is contingent upon a faithful execution of the agreement, stipulating equal rights for all, says: "We now demand that all Englishmen resident in the Transvaal shall be treated with justice, and President Kruger may rest assured that the whole country will support the gov-ernment in any demand to make this demand effective. Let Mr. Kruger grant the uitlanders full citizenship, and the whole question is ended."

WAR TALK.

The morning papers are beginning to talk quite seriously of the possibility of war in South Africa. Mr. Chamberlain, in his speech in the House of Commons yesterday, announced that his reply to the petition of the uitlanders, which had been held back pending the result of the conference at Bloemfontein, would now be presented to the Transvaal, This reply is semi-officially described as "explicit, but conciliatory," but it is believed to be in the nature of a practical ultimatum. The resources of diplomacy are regarded as exhausted with the failure of the conference. Nothing is left, it is felt, but a recourse to force. RUSSIANS POURING IN.

Oriental advices say Russia is still pouring munitions of war into Port Arthur, and has recently dumped in 2,000 more volunteer soldiers to guard the Manchurian section of the Siberian Railway. The Russian army in the far east now numbers 40,000 men.

friends in London and Toronto.

Mr. Lewis Clark, of The Advertiser, has received word of the death at Adelaide, South Australia, of his father, Rev. G. J. Clark.

Two other sons. Edmund and Stanley, both of Adelaide, South Australia, survive. Deceased was contemplating a trip to Canada to visit his son here. The Adelaide (S. A.) Advertiser has the following:

The Rev. Godfrey John Clark, who died of pneumonia at his son's residence, Mile End, on May 2, was widely known and respected, especially in the western suburbs of Adelaide. He was 76 years of age, but up to his death was active and always zealous in his church work, which he carried out to the last. He conducted service at the Grange only a week before his death, so that he may be said to have died in harness. Unassuming, gentle, kindly, to know him was to love him, and no one ever came within his circle of acquaintance without becoming his fast friend and admirer. He most benevolent disposition, and he will be long remembered, not merely by those of his own denomination-Baptist—but by people of the most diverse religious views. Though not what is known as an eloquent preacher, he had a homely style, which never failed to win the hearts of his hearers, and his wealth of anecdote and nimble wit made him as acceptable on the lecture platform as in the pulpit. Had he chosen, he might have made a greater figure in the world, but he was devoted to his life's work at Hilton and the Grange-the two churches over which he had charge-and preferred to do what he conceived to be his duty in a humble fashion to seeking any kind of notoriety. He was for 34 years a city missionary in the suburbs of London, 13 years at Walwork, Surrey, and 21 years at Leyton, Essex, In 1884 he came to South Australia to join his children, who had arrived nine months previously. He almost immediately took charge of the small Baptist Church at Hilton. In 1893 he took over the pastorship of the Grange Baptist Church, also, but in November last the state of his health compelled him to relinquish his connection with Hilton Church, while retainthe ing his oversight at the Grange.

was buried at West-terrace on He Thursday, and his funeral was attended by a large number of his neighbors and friends. A LOGAN FARMER KILLED BY

GLASGOW MERCHANTS ALARM. ED.

Glasgow, June 9.—At a mass meeting here of manufacturers, shipowners and merchants, a resolution was passed, expressing alarm at the serious injury to British and colonial trade arising from the continued and threatened extension of foreign competition. Mr. Anderson, of the Anchor Line, said America and Germany were taking markets where Great Britain had long been pre-eminent. He added that British subjects had not received just support from the government, asserted that the board of trade has assumed the character of police, and claimed the foreign office only moved when the steed was stolen.

The statement of the British board of trade for the month of May shows increases of £3,170,400 in imports, and £5.138.900 in exports.
