

The Address—Mr. Wood

constituents, my premier, and all Prince Edward Islanders and the contributions they are making to this nation, Canada.

● (1740)

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Wood: It is in this context that I, as a Canadian, take pleasure in seconding the motion of my colleague, the hon. member for Louis Hébert (Mr. Dawson), and in expressing to Her Majesty our appreciation for having added her gracious and admirable presence as we begin a new session of parliament to address the future of our nation.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

On motion of Mr. Clark the debate was adjourned.

On motion of Mr. Trudeau the House adjourned at 5.46 p.m.
