

THE SIXTY-NINTH ANNUAL MEETING

OF THE

NEW BRUNSWICK

AUXILIARY BIBLE SOCIETY.

---

The Sixty-ninth Annual Meeting of the New Brunswick Auxiliary Bible Society was held in the Mechanics' Institute on Thursday evening, Jan. 10th, 1889.

The Chair was occupied by the President, T. W. Daniel, Esq.

On the platform were many ladies and gentlemen among others being the following:—Rev. Canon Brigstocke, Rev. Dr. Macrae, Rev. Dr. Pope, Rev. Messrs. Geo. Bruce, L. G. MacNeill, E. M. C. Botterill, H. Daniel, A. J. McFarland, H. G. Mellick, Mayor Thorne and Messrs. C. F. Kinnear, C. E. MacMichael, Geo. Robertson, R. W. Crookshank, R. Cruikshank, James A. Estey, T. S. Simms, Geo. W. Whitney, Wm. Alwood and J. E. Irvine.

After the choir had sung the opening hymn—

While with ceaseless course the sun
Hasted through the former year,
Many souls their race have run,
Never more to meet us here.

The President, Mr. T. W. Daniel, said he would occupy but little time, but would call upon the gentlemen who were to move the resolutions. He must, however, refer to the great loss sustained by the Society in the death of their late President, Dr. Botsford. That gentleman was long associated with the Society and for the last twenty years was its President. He was glad to say that the Society's regret was to be set forth in a resolution. By the death of the late Henry Vaughan the Society had lost a Vice-President and a warm friend, and by the demise of Rev. Wm. Armstrong, a great helper and an earnest pro-
