Coalition Negotiations Still Are in Progress

Ottawa, June 29—There was further gossip in parliamentary corridors today of renewed attempts on the part of Sir Robert Borden to form a coalition with English speaking Liberals, either from within or from without parliament, who are in favor of conscription. It is known that Sir Robert has not yet given up hope of achieving some success along this line and negotiations have been quietly going on for some days past.

Various Liberals have been sounded out on the proposition but apparently the attitude assumed is that no coalition is feasible or wise which would absolutely ignore French Canadian sentiment and which would not include at least one or two of outstanding leadership and influence in Quebec. Liberals in parliament appreciate to the full the present menace to Canadian unity which the conscription bill and the present situation involves. They do not wish to create a situation in which practically a solid Quebec, and nearly one third of the population of Canada, would be out of sympathy or unrepresented in a war administration.

Furthermore they believe that in any coalition scheme there should be a recognized representative of the labor interests and they point to the policy pursued in this regard both in the United States and Great Britain where labor was consulted and its advice taken before conscription was invoked.

As far as can be learned Sir Robert Borden's further coalition proposals which apparently do not take into consideration these two conditions, are making little headway.

The fact that N. W. Rowell, M. P., leader of the Liberals in the Ontario legislature, who has been in Ottawa for the past two days on supreme court business, was seen driving up to Sir Robert Borden's residence this evening and that the premier was not in the house tonight, where he remained for a considerable time, was a subject of surmise and speculation in the common corridors tonight. It is generally credited here that Mr. Rowell is being again urged by Sir Robert to enter the government.

SOLDIER MEMBERS FAVOR REFERENDUM

The debate today was chiefly interesting for the speech of W. E. Carroll, a Liberal member, who enlisted as a private and did his bit at the front, later winning a lieutenant's commission. Mr. Carroll maintained that Nova Scotia, his own province, had met every call and was equal to keeping her battalions in the field.

He advocated a strict adherence to the policy of territorial units and pressed for a repudiation of the suggestion that the premier had given the word to slow down on recruiting. Mr. Carroll will support the referendum.

Other speakers were Geo. H. Bovin, Liberal member for Shefford, supporting the referendum, and Claude Macdonnell, one of the Toronto Conservative members, who demanded conscription and referred with pride to the showing of his own district.

Mr. Ethier, Liberal speaker in favor of the referendum and Achim, a Nationalist, supported the six months' halt after which the house adjourned until Tuesday.

Meanwhile most of the members will pay flying visits to their constituents and sound out the feeling of their electors on the great issue now before the country. Meanwhile, also, Canada will celebrate the jubilee of confederation, which brought a "United Canada" into being.

British Make Gains on Wide Front

London, June 29—The war office communication issued this evening says: "Our capture in the successful operations carried out by us last night in the neighborhood of Oppy and south of the Souchez river are now known to include 247 prisoners and twelve machine guns."

"We raided enemy trenches during today northeast of Croisilles and in the neighborhood of Armentieres. One German airplane was brought down yesterday in air fighting. None of our machines is missing."

The earlier statement, recording the successful attack, says: "Early last night we attacked and captured the enemy's forward position on a front of about 2,000 yards south and west of Oppy (the Aras sector). The whole of our objectives was gained and some prisoners and machine guns were taken by us."

"Our troops continue to gain on a wide front south of the Souchez river and have entered Arvin. A further number of prisoners and six machine guns have been captured in this area."

"A hostile raiding party was repulsed during the night north of Cherisy. We successfully raided the enemy's trenches southeast of Loos."

London, June 29—An official report on the situation with the Egyptian expedition force was issued this evening as follows: "The general situation is unchanged. There has been considerable patrol activity, in which we have secured prisoners. Successful air raids have recently been carried out. Six hundred and fifty pounds of bombs were dropped on a supply depot at Tulkan on June 25, severely damaging rolling stock and station buildings. Bombs weighing 1,300 pounds were dropped on the airfield at Ramleh. On June 26 fifty bombs were dropped on military establishments near Jerusalem."

ARBITRARY POWERS FOR BRITAIN'S FOOD CONTROLLER

London, June 29—The official Gazette tonight publishes an order-in-council conferring upon Lord Rhondda, the food controller, identical powers under the defense of the realm act with those already possessed by the admiralty and army council and the ministry of munitions for requisitioning supplies and controlling prices.

Lord Rhondda will now be able to requisition the whole or part of the output of any factory, paying prices therefore based on the cost of production with the addition of a reasonable pre-war rate of profit, regardless of the prices ruling in the open market.

THE LATE J. H. DICKSON, K. C.

(Fredericton Mail.) The City of Fredericton lost an excellent citizen and the Province of New Brunswick an able lawyer and faithful public official in the death of Joseph Howe Dickson, K. C., which was recorded yesterday. Although it was known that Mr. Dickson was seriously ill, the news of his death came as a great shock to everybody, and especially to his closest personal friends. It seems but yesterday that he was at his desk in the departmental buildings, attending to his duties, occasionally pausing in his work to grasp the hand of an old acquaintance who would happen along, or crack a joke with some politician or official. Today he lies in the cold embrace of death, his cheery voice stilled forever.

A widow and only son mourn the loss of a kind and lovable husband and father; members and officials of the government deplore the death of a genial companion and co-worker whom they all revered, and hundreds of people in all walks of life grieve over the passing of a white-souled and big-hearted man, who was ever ready to add to the sum of human joy and whose friendship they valued as a priceless treasure.

A man of exceptional conversational powers, of broad views and superior intelligence, coupled with a refined sense of humor, Mr. Dickson was ever cheerful and courteous, and made friends wherever he went. As a public official, his services were invaluable, and his death makes a vacancy that cannot be filled—simply because there was only one Joseph Howe Dickson in New Brunswick.

He was born in the city of Fredericton, N. B., on June 10, 1858, and was educated at the University of New Brunswick and at the Law School of the University of Toronto. He was called to the bar in 1882 and practiced law in Fredericton until 1890, when he was appointed solicitor-general of the province. He held this position until 1895, when he was appointed attorney-general. He was reappointed in 1900 and held the position until 1905, when he was appointed chief justice of the province. He was reappointed in 1908 and held the position until 1912, when he was appointed chief justice of the province. He was reappointed in 1915 and held the position until his death on June 28, 1917.

He was a member of the Legislative Council of the province from 1895 to 1905, and a member of the House of Commons from 1905 to 1917. He was a member of the Privy Council of the province from 1905 to 1917. He was a member of the Executive Council of the province from 1905 to 1917. He was a member of the Council of the University of New Brunswick from 1905 to 1917. He was a member of the Council of the Law Society of New Brunswick from 1905 to 1917.
