REPEAT PERFORMANCE AT ST. ROSE'S BRINGS PLAYERS MORE HONORS

Despite inclement weather St. Rose's hall in Milford was packed last evening at the second performance of "The Dust of the Earth," presented under the auspices of St. Rose's Dramatic Club. The play, a melo-drama with a pleasing blending of comedy and romance in four acts, was one of the most interesting productions ever staged by this clever group of amateur actors.

Prior to the first act a farce was presented by J. J. O'Toole and John U. Haggerty. It was titled "A Modern School For Acting," and abounded with ludicrous incidents and expressions. The acting of the participants kept the audience convulsed with laughter and they received hearty applause.

The clever impersonation of the principal characters in the drama evoked prolonged applause and won the admiration and praise of everyone present. Special mention should be made of the acting of Miss Blanche O'Brien and Miss Irene Malloy. These young ladies gave portrayals which would do credit to many on the professional stage. One of the most amusing character parts and one excellently done was that of Miss Arabella, "The Village Newspaper," by Miss Alma O'Toole. Miss Helen Gillis also acted her part well. W. J. Quigg as an aged farmer gave a clever portrayal. E. A. Trainor played the juvenile lead role excellently, while P. L. O'Toole as a colored man excelled himself. J. U. Haggerty as Dr. Templeton won new laurels and J. E. Fitzgerald also acted his part well. J. J. O'Toole as Jerry acted up to his standard and needless to say was a general favorite. On the whole the members of the cast acquitted themselves in a most commendable manner. The specialties were also well received, especially the singing of Miss Mildred French.

Cossack General Reports Inability to Combat Anarchy in the Mining Districts

Petrograd, Oct. 31.—(British Admiralty per Wireless Press)—Russian soldiers who fraternized with Germans were fired on by Russian artillery the other day.
"In the reign of blood," says the official statement, "several scores of our men fraternized with the Germans. The troops so engaged were dispersed by our artillery fire. The Germans also attempted to fraternize in the region of Krevo and near the village of Larovo, southeast of Baranovich."

General Kaleridze, headman of the Dn Cossacks, has telegraphed to the war ministry that it is impossible to combat
