AMAZING BARGAINS

ON March the first, the Slater Shoe Store will be closed up. In the meantime the people of St. John and vicinity must buy and take away $10,000 worth of Boots and Shoes. To get them to do this during the duller weeks of the year, bargains such as only offered at rare intervals are being given.

Did you get some? Why not? Even though you do not need shoes at present, buy for future use.

Cash Only. No Appropriation.

MY LADY'S ARM POETS' THEME; HERE ARE HINTS

LESSONS FROM IRENE HOUGH'S BEAUTY
 The Most Beautiful Telephone Girl in America

Irene Estelle Hough

The arms of Miss Irene Hough are lovely.

(By Idah McGlone Gibson.)

Probably the poets have penned more sonnets to my lady's arms than even to her eyes!

The arms of Miss Irene Hough are lovely. They are long and slender yet shapely.

The one great thing to remember in keeping one's arms beautiful is to be sure that the upper arm is not rough and pimply; that the elbow stays soft and dimpled, and that an unsightly, long, deep line will not come between the elbow and the wrist.

The first arm blemish can be warded off by always drying the arms with a heavy, rough towel and rubbing the upper arm until it glows a bright pink. Then rub some good cold cream into the skin with a round-and-round motion.

Your elbows should be scrubbed once a day with hot suds and a soft flesh brush. After drying, cold cream must be rubbed into them until they are soft and white. There is nothing so ugly as a rough, calloused elbow.

For the forearm there must be constant massage.

Let me again advise you to not tan or sunburn your arms. Many girls think it "rather stunning" to show arms in summer browned to the elbow, but as soon as winter comes a tanned arm loses all its fascination, and the poor girl will see that never again are her arms so white and soft as before they were tanned.

STORY WRITER MAKES HER HOME AMONG THE BIRDS

Although known the world over as the "bird-woman," Mrs. Gene Stratton-Porter is not an aeronaut and "sailing 'round the moon" is not one of her favorite pastimes.

With camera and notebook, however, she has scaled mountains, climbed trees, tramped through marshes and woodlands and captured more pictures of rare birds and studied more curious specimens of birds than any other woman in America. Hence to bird lovers everywhere the woman whom most people know as the author of "Laddie" or "The Harvester" is known merely as the "bird-woman."

So that she may better study her little friends of the tree tops, Mrs. Stratton-Porter has made a home for herself among the birds. On her estate near Rome City, Ind., she has built a cabin—"Lumberlost Cabin," she calls it—and there in the woodland far from the haunts of human neighbors, she lives and studies the birds and writes books—books in which birds always have an important part. If rumors that have come recently from "Lumberlost Cabin" are true, the Doubleday-Page company will soon have another Gene Stratton-Porter story ready for the public.
